1. Each State Party with respect to cluster munition victims in areas under its jurisdiction or control shall, in accordance with international human rights law and principles, including non-discrimination, full and effective participation, and inclusion in society, adequately provide assistance, including for their medical care and rehabilitation, psychological support and social and economic inclusion. Each State Party shall develop, implement and enforce relevant laws and policies, and make every effort to collect reliable relevant data with respect to cluster munition victims.

2. In fulfilling its obligations under paragraph 1 of this Article each State Party shall:
   (a) assess the needs of victims, take steps to mobilise national and international resources and develop a national plan\(^1\) including the time estimated to carry out these activities\(^2\) with a view to incorporating it within existing disability, development and human rights frameworks and mechanisms;
   (b) closely consult with and actively involve victims and their representative organisations;\(^3\)
   (c) designate a focal point within the government to coordinate activities undertaken in different sectors and at different levels;\(^4\)
   (d) take into consideration relevant guidelines and good practices in the areas of medical care and rehabilitation, psychological support as well as social and economic inclusion.
