

THE SECRETARY-GENERAL

24 June 2016

Excellency,

I refer to the Convention on Cluster Munitions (CCM), which entered into force on 1 August 2010.

The Convention on Cluster Munitions prohibits the use, development, production, stockpiling, retaining and transfer of cluster munitions, establishes deadlines for the destruction of stockpiled cluster munitions and clearance of unexploded sub-munitions and contains robust provisions on assistance to cluster munition survivors.

I welcome the fact that 100 States have become parties to the Convention since its adoption in 2008. I support all efforts aimed at achieving universal adherence to and full implementation of the provisions of the Convention. A widely supported and strictly implemented Convention would benefit the victims of cluster munitions and affected communities, save lives and prevent enormous human suffering.

I would therefore like to encourage your country to consider, without delay, becoming a party to the Convention on Cluster Munitions. By joining the Convention, your country would contribute significantly to the strengthening of international humanitarian law in the interests of promoting international security and preserving human life.

Please accept, Excellency, the assurances of my highest consideration.

A handwritten signature in black ink that reads "Ban Ki-moon". The signature is fluid and cursive, with the first letters of each name being capitalized and prominent.

BAN Ki-moon

His Excellency
Mr. José Eduardo dos Santos
President of the Republic of Angola
President of the Popular Movement for the Liberation of Angola (MPLA)
Luanda

THE SECRETARY-GENERAL

24 June 2016

Excellency,

I refer to the Convention on Cluster Munitions (CCM), which entered into force on 1 August 2010.

The Convention on Cluster Munitions prohibits the use, development, production, stockpiling, retaining and transfer of cluster munitions, establishes deadlines for the destruction of stockpiled cluster munitions and clearance of unexploded sub-munitions and contains robust provisions on assistance to cluster munition survivors.

I welcome the fact that 100 States have become parties to the Convention since its adoption in 2008. I support all efforts aimed at achieving universal adherence to and full implementation of the provisions of the Convention. A widely supported and strictly implemented Convention would benefit the victims of cluster munitions and affected communities, save lives and prevent enormous human suffering.

I would therefore like to encourage your country to consider, without delay, becoming a party to the Convention on Cluster Munitions. By joining the Convention, your country would contribute significantly to the strengthening of international humanitarian law in the interests of promoting international security and preserving human life.

Please accept, Excellency, the assurances of my highest consideration.

A handwritten signature in black ink that reads "Ban Ki-moon". The signature is fluid and cursive, with the first letters of each name being capitalized and prominent.

BAN Ki-moon

His Excellency
Mr. Serzh Sargsyan
President of the Republic of Armenia
Yerevan

THE SECRETARY-GENERAL

24 June 2016

Excellency,

I refer to the Convention on Cluster Munitions (CCM), which entered into force on 1 August 2010.

The Convention on Cluster Munitions prohibits the use, development, production, stockpiling, retaining and transfer of cluster munitions, establishes deadlines for the destruction of stockpiled cluster munitions and clearance of unexploded sub-munitions and contains robust provisions on assistance to cluster munition survivors.

I welcome the fact that 100 States have become parties to the Convention since its adoption in 2008. I support all efforts aimed at achieving universal adherence to and full implementation of the provisions of the Convention. A widely supported and strictly implemented Convention would benefit the victims of cluster munitions and affected communities, save lives and prevent enormous human suffering.

I would therefore like to encourage your country to consider, without delay, becoming a party to the Convention on Cluster Munitions. By joining the Convention, your country would contribute significantly to the strengthening of international humanitarian law in the interests of promoting international security and preserving human life.

Please accept, Excellency, the assurances of my highest consideration.

A handwritten signature in black ink that reads "Ban Ki-moon". The signature is fluid and cursive, with the first letters of each name being capitalized and prominent.

BAN Ki-moon

His Excellency
Mr. Ilham Heydar oglu Aliyev
President of the Republic of Azerbaijan
Baku

THE SECRETARY-GENERAL

24 June 2016

Excellency,

I refer to the Convention on Cluster Munitions (CCM), which entered into force on 1 August 2010.

The Convention on Cluster Munitions prohibits the use, development, production, stockpiling, retaining and transfer of cluster munitions, establishes deadlines for the destruction of stockpiled cluster munitions and clearance of unexploded sub-munitions and contains robust provisions on assistance to cluster munition survivors.

I welcome the fact that 100 States have become parties to the Convention since its adoption in 2008. I support all efforts aimed at achieving universal adherence to and full implementation of the provisions of the Convention. A widely supported and strictly implemented Convention would benefit the victims of cluster munitions and affected communities, save lives and prevent enormous human suffering.

I would therefore like to encourage your country to consider, without delay, becoming a party to the Convention on Cluster Munitions. By joining the Convention, your country would contribute significantly to the strengthening of international humanitarian law in the interests of promoting international security and preserving human life.

Please accept, Excellency, the assurances of my highest consideration.

A handwritten signature in black ink that reads "Ban Ki-moon". The signature is fluid and cursive, with a long horizontal stroke at the end.

BAN Ki-moon

His Excellency
Mr. Perry Gladstone Christie, MP
Prime Minister and Minister of Finance of the Commonwealth of the Bahamas Nassau

THE SECRETARY-GENERAL

24 June 2016

Your Majesty,

I refer to the Convention on Cluster Munitions (CCM), which entered into force on 1 August 2010.

The Convention on Cluster Munitions prohibits the use, development, production, stockpiling, retaining and transfer of cluster munitions, establishes deadlines for the destruction of stockpiled cluster munitions and clearance of unexploded sub-munitions and contains robust provisions on assistance to cluster munition survivors.

I welcome the fact that 100 States have become parties to the Convention since its adoption in 2008. I support all efforts aimed at achieving universal adherence to and full implementation of the provisions of the Convention. A widely supported and strictly implemented Convention would benefit the victims of cluster munitions and affected communities, save lives and prevent enormous human suffering.

I would therefore like to encourage your country to consider, without delay, becoming a party to the Convention on Cluster Munitions. By joining the Convention, your country would contribute significantly to the strengthening of international humanitarian law in the interests of promoting international security and preserving human life.

Please accept, Your Majesty, the assurances of my highest consideration.

A handwritten signature in black ink that reads "Ban Ki-moon". The signature is fluid and cursive, with a long horizontal stroke at the end.

BAN Ki-moon

His Majesty
King Hamad bin Isa Al Khalifa
King of the Kingdom of Bahrain
Manama

THE SECRETARY-GENERAL

24 June 2016

Excellency,

I refer to the Convention on Cluster Munitions (CCM), which entered into force on 1 August 2010.

The Convention on Cluster Munitions prohibits the use, development, production, stockpiling, retaining and transfer of cluster munitions, establishes deadlines for the destruction of stockpiled cluster munitions and clearance of unexploded sub-munitions and contains robust provisions on assistance to cluster munition survivors.

I welcome the fact that 100 States have become parties to the Convention since its adoption in 2008. I support all efforts aimed at achieving universal adherence to and full implementation of the provisions of the Convention. A widely supported and strictly implemented Convention would benefit the victims of cluster munitions and affected communities, save lives and prevent enormous human suffering.

I would therefore like to encourage your country to consider, without delay, becoming a party to the Convention on Cluster Munitions. By joining the Convention, your country would contribute significantly to the strengthening of international humanitarian law in the interests of promoting international security and preserving human life.

Please accept, Excellency, the assurances of my highest consideration.

A handwritten signature in black ink that reads "Ban Ki-moon".

BAN Ki-moon

Her Excellency
Sheikh Hasina
Prime Minister of the People's Republic of Bangladesh
Dhaka

THE SECRETARY-GENERAL

24 June 2016

Excellency,

I refer to the Convention on Cluster Munitions (CCM), which entered into force on 1 August 2010.

The Convention on Cluster Munitions prohibits the use, development, production, stockpiling, retaining and transfer of cluster munitions, establishes deadlines for the destruction of stockpiled cluster munitions and clearance of unexploded sub-munitions and contains robust provisions on assistance to cluster munition survivors.

I welcome the fact that 100 States have become parties to the Convention since its adoption in 2008. I support all efforts aimed at achieving universal adherence to and full implementation of the provisions of the Convention. A widely supported and strictly implemented Convention would benefit the victims of cluster munitions and affected communities, save lives and prevent enormous human suffering.

I would therefore like to encourage your country to consider, without delay, becoming a party to the Convention on Cluster Munitions. By joining the Convention, your country would contribute significantly to the strengthening of international humanitarian law in the interests of promoting international security and preserving human life.

Please accept, Excellency, the assurances of my highest consideration.

A handwritten signature in black ink that reads "Ki Moon Ban".

BAN Ki-moon

His Excellency
Mr. Freundel Stuart, QC, MP
Prime Minister, Minister for National Security, the Public Service and Urban Development of Barbados
St. Michael

THE SECRETARY-GENERAL

24 June 2016

Excellency,

I refer to the Convention on Cluster Munitions (CCM), which entered into force on 1 August 2010.

The Convention on Cluster Munitions prohibits the use, development, production, stockpiling, retaining and transfer of cluster munitions, establishes deadlines for the destruction of stockpiled cluster munitions and clearance of unexploded sub-munitions and contains robust provisions on assistance to cluster munition survivors.

I welcome the fact that 100 States have become parties to the Convention since its adoption in 2008. I support all efforts aimed at achieving universal adherence to and full implementation of the provisions of the Convention. A widely supported and strictly implemented Convention would benefit the victims of cluster munitions and affected communities, save lives and prevent enormous human suffering.

I would therefore like to encourage your country to consider, without delay, becoming a party to the Convention on Cluster Munitions. By joining the Convention, your country would contribute significantly to the strengthening of international humanitarian law in the interests of promoting international security and preserving human life.

Please accept, Excellency, the assurances of my highest consideration.

A handwritten signature in black ink, reading "Ki Moon Ban".

BAN Ki-moon

His Excellency
Mr. Alexander Lukashenko
President of the Republic of Belarus
Minsk

THE SECRETARY-GENERAL

24 June 2016

Excellency,

I refer to the Convention on Cluster Munitions (CCM), which entered into force on 1 August 2010.

The Convention on Cluster Munitions prohibits the use, development, production, stockpiling, retaining and transfer of cluster munitions, establishes deadlines for the destruction of stockpiled cluster munitions and clearance of unexploded sub-munitions and contains robust provisions on assistance to cluster munition survivors.

I welcome the fact that 100 States have become parties to the Convention since its adoption in 2008. I support all efforts aimed at achieving universal adherence to and full implementation of the provisions of the Convention. A widely supported and strictly implemented Convention would benefit the victims of cluster munitions and affected communities, save lives and prevent enormous human suffering.

I would therefore like to encourage your country to consider, without delay, becoming a party to the Convention on Cluster Munitions. By joining the Convention, your country would contribute significantly to the strengthening of international humanitarian law in the interests of promoting international security and preserving human life.

Please accept, Excellency, the assurances of my highest consideration.

A handwritten signature in black ink that reads "Ban Ki-moon". The signature is fluid and cursive, with the first letters of each name being capitalized and prominent.

BAN Ki-moon

His Excellency
Lyonchoen Tshering Tobgay
Prime Minister of the Kingdom of Bhutan
Thimphu

THE SECRETARY-GENERAL

24 June 2016

Excellency,

I refer to the Convention on Cluster Munitions (CCM), which entered into force on 1 August 2010.

The Convention on Cluster Munitions prohibits the use, development, production, stockpiling, retaining and transfer of cluster munitions, establishes deadlines for the destruction of stockpiled cluster munitions and clearance of unexploded sub-munitions and contains robust provisions on assistance to cluster munition survivors.

I welcome the fact that 100 States have become parties to the Convention since its adoption in 2008. I support all efforts aimed at achieving universal adherence to and full implementation of the provisions of the Convention. A widely supported and strictly implemented Convention would benefit the victims of cluster munitions and affected communities, save lives and prevent enormous human suffering.

I would therefore like to encourage your country to consider, without delay, becoming a party to the Convention on Cluster Munitions. By joining the Convention, your country would contribute significantly to the strengthening of international humanitarian law in the interests of promoting international security and preserving human life.

Please accept, Excellency, the assurances of my highest consideration.

A handwritten signature in black ink that reads "Ban Ki-moon". The signature is fluid and cursive, with the first letters of each name being capitalized and prominent.

BAN Ki-moon

His Excellency
Mr. Michel Temer
President ad interim of the Federative Republic of Brazil
Brasília

THE SECRETARY-GENERAL

24 June 2016

Your Majesty,

I refer to the Convention on Cluster Munitions (CCM), which entered into force on 1 August 2010.

The Convention on Cluster Munitions prohibits the use, development, production, stockpiling, retaining and transfer of cluster munitions, establishes deadlines for the destruction of stockpiled cluster munitions and clearance of unexploded sub-munitions and contains robust provisions on assistance to cluster munition survivors.

I welcome the fact that 100 States have become parties to the Convention since its adoption in 2008. I support all efforts aimed at achieving universal adherence to and full implementation of the provisions of the Convention. A widely supported and strictly implemented Convention would benefit the victims of cluster munitions and affected communities, save lives and prevent enormous human suffering.

I would therefore like to encourage your country to consider, without delay, becoming a party to the Convention on Cluster Munitions. By joining the Convention, your country would contribute significantly to the strengthening of international humanitarian law in the interests of promoting international security and preserving human life.

Please accept, Your Majesty, the assurances of my highest consideration.

A handwritten signature in black ink that reads "Ki Moon Ban". The signature is fluid and cursive, with the first letters of each name being capitalized and prominent.

BAN Ki-moon

His Majesty
Sultan Hassanal Bolkiah Mu'izzaddin Waddaulah
Sultan and Yang Di Pertuan of Negara Brunei Darussalam
Bandar Seri Begawan

THE SECRETARY-GENERAL

24 June 2016

Excellency,

I refer to the Convention on Cluster Munitions (CCM), which entered into force on 1 August 2010.

The Convention on Cluster Munitions prohibits the use, development, production, stockpiling, retaining and transfer of cluster munitions, establishes deadlines for the destruction of stockpiled cluster munitions and clearance of unexploded sub-munitions and contains robust provisions on assistance to cluster munition survivors.

I welcome the fact that 100 States have become parties to the Convention since its adoption in 2008. I support all efforts aimed at achieving universal adherence to and full implementation of the provisions of the Convention. A widely supported and strictly implemented Convention would benefit the victims of cluster munitions and affected communities, save lives and prevent enormous human suffering.

I would therefore like to encourage your country to consider, without delay, becoming a party to the Convention on Cluster Munitions. By joining the Convention, your country would contribute significantly to the strengthening of international humanitarian law in the interests of promoting international security and preserving human life.

Please accept, Excellency, the assurances of my highest consideration.

A handwritten signature in black ink that reads "Ban Ki-moon". The signature is fluid and cursive, with the first letters of each name being capitalized and prominent.

BAN Ki-moon

His Excellency
Samdech Akka Moha Sena Padei Techo Hun Sen
Prime Minister of the Kingdom of Cambodia
Phnom Penh

THE SECRETARY-GENERAL

24 June 2016

Excellency,

I refer to the Convention on Cluster Munitions (CCM), which entered into force on 1 August 2010.

The Convention on Cluster Munitions prohibits the use, development, production, stockpiling, retaining and transfer of cluster munitions, establishes deadlines for the destruction of stockpiled cluster munitions and clearance of unexploded sub-munitions and contains robust provisions on assistance to cluster munition survivors.

I welcome the fact that 100 States have become parties to the Convention since its adoption in 2008. I support all efforts aimed at achieving universal adherence to and full implementation of the provisions of the Convention. A widely supported and strictly implemented Convention would benefit the victims of cluster munitions and affected communities, save lives and prevent enormous human suffering.

I would therefore like to encourage your country to consider, without delay, becoming a party to the Convention on Cluster Munitions. By joining the Convention, your country would contribute significantly to the strengthening of international humanitarian law in the interests of promoting international security and preserving human life.

Please accept, Excellency, the assurances of my highest consideration.

A handwritten signature in black ink that reads "Ban Ki-moon". The signature is fluid and cursive, with the first letters of each name being capitalized and prominent.

BAN Ki-moon

His Excellency
Mr. Xi Jinping
President of the People's Republic of China
Beijing

THE SECRETARY-GENERAL

24 June 2016

Excellency,

I refer to the Convention on Cluster Munitions (CCM), which entered into force on 1 August 2010.

The Convention on Cluster Munitions prohibits the use, development, production, stockpiling, retaining and transfer of cluster munitions, establishes deadlines for the destruction of stockpiled cluster munitions and clearance of unexploded sub-munitions and contains robust provisions on assistance to cluster munition survivors.

I welcome the fact that 100 States have become parties to the Convention since its adoption in 2008. I support all efforts aimed at achieving universal adherence to and full implementation of the provisions of the Convention. A widely supported and strictly implemented Convention would benefit the victims of cluster munitions and affected communities, save lives and prevent enormous human suffering.

I would therefore like to encourage your country to consider, without delay, becoming a party to the Convention on Cluster Munitions. By joining the Convention, your country would contribute significantly to the strengthening of international humanitarian law in the interests of promoting international security and preserving human life.

Please accept, Excellency, the assurances of my highest consideration.

A handwritten signature in black ink, reading "Ban Ki-moon". The signature is fluid and cursive, with the first letters of each name being capitalized and prominent.

BAN Ki-moon

His Excellency
Mr. Nicos Anastasiades
President of the Republic of Cyprus
Nicosia

THE SECRETARY-GENERAL

24 June 2016

Excellency,

I refer to the Convention on Cluster Munitions (CCM), which entered into force on 1 August 2010.

The Convention on Cluster Munitions prohibits the use, development, production, stockpiling, retaining and transfer of cluster munitions, establishes deadlines for the destruction of stockpiled cluster munitions and clearance of unexploded sub-munitions and contains robust provisions on assistance to cluster munition survivors.

I welcome the fact that 100 States have become parties to the Convention since its adoption in 2008. I support all efforts aimed at achieving universal adherence to and full implementation of the provisions of the Convention. A widely supported and strictly implemented Convention would benefit the victims of cluster munitions and affected communities, save lives and prevent enormous human suffering.

I would therefore like to encourage your country to consider, without delay, becoming a party to the Convention on Cluster Munitions. By joining the Convention, your country would contribute significantly to the strengthening of international humanitarian law in the interests of promoting international security and preserving human life.

Please accept, Excellency, the assurances of my highest consideration.

A handwritten signature in black ink that reads "Ban Ki-moon". The signature is fluid and cursive, with the first letters of each name being capitalized and prominent.

BAN Ki-moon

His Excellency
Mr. Kim Jong Un
Chairman of the Workers' Party of Korea,
First Chairman of the National Defence Commission of the Democratic People's Republic of Korea,
Supreme Commander of the Korean People's Army
Pyongyang

THE SECRETARY-GENERAL

24 June 2016

Excellency,

I refer to the Convention on Cluster Munitions (CCM), which entered into force on 1 August 2010.

The Convention on Cluster Munitions prohibits the use, development, production, stockpiling, retaining and transfer of cluster munitions, establishes deadlines for the destruction of stockpiled cluster munitions and clearance of unexploded sub-munitions and contains robust provisions on assistance to cluster munition survivors.

I welcome the fact that 100 States have become parties to the Convention since its adoption in 2008. I support all efforts aimed at achieving universal adherence to and full implementation of the provisions of the Convention. A widely supported and strictly implemented Convention would benefit the victims of cluster munitions and affected communities, save lives and prevent enormous human suffering.

I would therefore like to encourage your country to consider, without delay, becoming a party to the Convention on Cluster Munitions. By joining the Convention, your country would contribute significantly to the strengthening of international humanitarian law in the interests of promoting international security and preserving human life.

Please accept, Excellency, the assurances of my highest consideration.

A handwritten signature in black ink that reads "Ban Ki-moon".

BAN Ki-moon

His Excellency
Mr. Roosevelt Skerrit
Prime Minister and Minister for Finance and Public Service of the Commonwealth of Dominica
Roseau

THE SECRETARY-GENERAL

24 June 2016

Excellency,

I refer to the Convention on Cluster Munitions (CCM), which entered into force on 1 August 2010.

The Convention on Cluster Munitions prohibits the use, development, production, stockpiling, retaining and transfer of cluster munitions, establishes deadlines for the destruction of stockpiled cluster munitions and clearance of unexploded sub-munitions and contains robust provisions on assistance to cluster munition survivors.

I welcome the fact that 100 States have become parties to the Convention since its adoption in 2008. I support all efforts aimed at achieving universal adherence to and full implementation of the provisions of the Convention. A widely supported and strictly implemented Convention would benefit the victims of cluster munitions and affected communities, save lives and prevent enormous human suffering.

I would therefore like to encourage your country to consider, without delay, becoming a party to the Convention on Cluster Munitions. By joining the Convention, your country would contribute significantly to the strengthening of international humanitarian law in the interests of promoting international security and preserving human life.

Please accept, Excellency, the assurances of my highest consideration.

A handwritten signature in black ink that reads "Ban Ki-moon". The signature is fluid and cursive, with a long horizontal stroke at the end.

BAN Ki-moon

His Excellency
Mr. Abdel Fattah Al Sisi
President of the Arab Republic of Egypt
Cairo

THE SECRETARY-GENERAL

24 June 2016

Excellency,

I refer to the Convention on Cluster Munitions (CCM), which entered into force on 1 August 2010.

The Convention on Cluster Munitions prohibits the use, development, production, stockpiling, retaining and transfer of cluster munitions, establishes deadlines for the destruction of stockpiled cluster munitions and clearance of unexploded sub-munitions and contains robust provisions on assistance to cluster munition survivors.

I welcome the fact that 100 States have become parties to the Convention since its adoption in 2008. I support all efforts aimed at achieving universal adherence to and full implementation of the provisions of the Convention. A widely supported and strictly implemented Convention would benefit the victims of cluster munitions and affected communities, save lives and prevent enormous human suffering.

I would therefore like to encourage your country to consider, without delay, becoming a party to the Convention on Cluster Munitions. By joining the Convention, your country would contribute significantly to the strengthening of international humanitarian law in the interests of promoting international security and preserving human life.

Please accept, Excellency, the assurances of my highest consideration.

A handwritten signature in black ink that reads "Ban Ki-moon". The signature is fluid and cursive, with a long vertical line extending downwards from the end of the name.

BAN Ki-moon

His Excellency
Mr. Isaias Afwerki
President of the State of Eritrea
Asmara

THE SECRETARY-GENERAL

24 June 2016

Excellency,

I refer to the Convention on Cluster Munitions (CCM), which entered into force on 1 August 2010.

The Convention on Cluster Munitions prohibits the use, development, production, stockpiling, retaining and transfer of cluster munitions, establishes deadlines for the destruction of stockpiled cluster munitions and clearance of unexploded sub-munitions and contains robust provisions on assistance to cluster munition survivors.

I welcome the fact that 100 States have become parties to the Convention since its adoption in 2008. I support all efforts aimed at achieving universal adherence to and full implementation of the provisions of the Convention. A widely supported and strictly implemented Convention would benefit the victims of cluster munitions and affected communities, save lives and prevent enormous human suffering.

I would therefore like to encourage your country to consider, without delay, becoming a party to the Convention on Cluster Munitions. By joining the Convention, your country would contribute significantly to the strengthening of international humanitarian law in the interests of promoting international security and preserving human life.

Please accept, Excellency, the assurances of my highest consideration.

A handwritten signature in black ink that reads "Ban Ki-moon". The signature is fluid and cursive, with the first letters of each name being capitalized and prominent.

BAN Ki-moon

His Excellency
Mr. Toomas Hendrik Ilves
President of the Republic of Estonia
Tallinn

THE SECRETARY-GENERAL

24 June 2016

Excellency,

I refer to the Convention on Cluster Munitions (CCM), which entered into force on 1 August 2010.

The Convention on Cluster Munitions prohibits the use, development, production, stockpiling, retaining and transfer of cluster munitions, establishes deadlines for the destruction of stockpiled cluster munitions and clearance of unexploded sub-munitions and contains robust provisions on assistance to cluster munition survivors.

I welcome the fact that 100 States have become parties to the Convention since its adoption in 2008. I support all efforts aimed at achieving universal adherence to and full implementation of the provisions of the Convention. A widely supported and strictly implemented Convention would benefit the victims of cluster munitions and affected communities, save lives and prevent enormous human suffering.

I would therefore like to encourage your country to consider, without delay, becoming a party to the Convention on Cluster Munitions. By joining the Convention, your country would contribute significantly to the strengthening of international humanitarian law in the interests of promoting international security and preserving human life.

Please accept, Excellency, the assurances of my highest consideration.

A handwritten signature in black ink that reads "Ban Ki-moon". The signature is fluid and cursive, with the first letters of each name being capitalized and prominent.

BAN Ki-moon

His Excellency
Mr. Hailemariam Dessalegn
Prime Minister of the Federal Democratic Republic of Ethiopia
Addis Ababa

THE SECRETARY-GENERAL

24 June 2016

Excellency,

I refer to the Convention on Cluster Munitions (CCM), which entered into force on 1 August 2010.

The Convention on Cluster Munitions prohibits the use, development, production, stockpiling, retaining and transfer of cluster munitions, establishes deadlines for the destruction of stockpiled cluster munitions and clearance of unexploded sub-munitions and contains robust provisions on assistance to cluster munition survivors.

I welcome the fact that 100 States have become parties to the Convention since its adoption in 2008. I support all efforts aimed at achieving universal adherence to and full implementation of the provisions of the Convention. A widely supported and strictly implemented Convention would benefit the victims of cluster munitions and affected communities, save lives and prevent enormous human suffering.

I would therefore like to encourage your country to consider, without delay, becoming a party to the Convention on Cluster Munitions. By joining the Convention, your country would contribute significantly to the strengthening of international humanitarian law in the interests of promoting international security and preserving human life.

Please accept, Excellency, the assurances of my highest consideration.

A handwritten signature in black ink that reads "Ban Ki-moon". The signature is fluid and cursive, with a long horizontal stroke at the end.

BAN Ki-moon

His Excellency
Mr. Sauli Niinistö
President of the Republic of Finland
Helsinki

THE SECRETARY-GENERAL

24 June 2016

Excellency,

I refer to the Convention on Cluster Munitions (CCM), which entered into force on 1 August 2010.

The Convention on Cluster Munitions prohibits the use, development, production, stockpiling, retaining and transfer of cluster munitions, establishes deadlines for the destruction of stockpiled cluster munitions and clearance of unexploded sub-munitions and contains robust provisions on assistance to cluster munition survivors.

I welcome the fact that 100 States have become parties to the Convention since its adoption in 2008. I support all efforts aimed at achieving universal adherence to and full implementation of the provisions of the Convention. A widely supported and strictly implemented Convention would benefit the victims of cluster munitions and affected communities, save lives and prevent enormous human suffering.

I would therefore like to encourage your country to consider, without delay, becoming a party to the Convention on Cluster Munitions. By joining the Convention, your country would contribute significantly to the strengthening of international humanitarian law in the interests of promoting international security and preserving human life.

Please accept, Excellency, the assurances of my highest consideration.

A handwritten signature in black ink that reads "Ban Ki-moon".

BAN Ki-moon

His Excellency
Sheikh Alhaji Yahya A.J.J. Jammeh Babil Mansa
President of the Islamic Republic of The Gambia Banjul

THE SECRETARY-GENERAL

24 June 2016

Excellency,

I refer to the Convention on Cluster Munitions (CCM), which entered into force on 1 August 2010.

The Convention on Cluster Munitions prohibits the use, development, production, stockpiling, retaining and transfer of cluster munitions, establishes deadlines for the destruction of stockpiled cluster munitions and clearance of unexploded sub-munitions and contains robust provisions on assistance to cluster munition survivors.

I welcome the fact that 100 States have become parties to the Convention since its adoption in 2008. I support all efforts aimed at achieving universal adherence to and full implementation of the provisions of the Convention. A widely supported and strictly implemented Convention would benefit the victims of cluster munitions and affected communities, save lives and prevent enormous human suffering.

I would therefore like to encourage your country to consider, without delay, becoming a party to the Convention on Cluster Munitions. By joining the Convention, your country would contribute significantly to the strengthening of international humanitarian law in the interests of promoting international security and preserving human life.

Please accept, Excellency, the assurances of my highest consideration.

A handwritten signature in black ink, reading "Ki Moon Ban".

BAN Ki-moon

His Excellency
Mr. Giorgi Margvelashvili
President of Georgia
Tbilisi

THE SECRETARY-GENERAL

24 June 2016

Excellency,

I refer to the Convention on Cluster Munitions (CCM), which entered into force on 1 August 2010.

The Convention on Cluster Munitions prohibits the use, development, production, stockpiling, retaining and transfer of cluster munitions, establishes deadlines for the destruction of stockpiled cluster munitions and clearance of unexploded sub-munitions and contains robust provisions on assistance to cluster munition survivors.

I welcome the fact that 100 States have become parties to the Convention since its adoption in 2008. I support all efforts aimed at achieving universal adherence to and full implementation of the provisions of the Convention. A widely supported and strictly implemented Convention would benefit the victims of cluster munitions and affected communities, save lives and prevent enormous human suffering.

I would therefore like to encourage your country to consider, without delay, becoming a party to the Convention on Cluster Munitions. By joining the Convention, your country would contribute significantly to the strengthening of international humanitarian law in the interests of promoting international security and preserving human life.

Please accept, Excellency, the assurances of my highest consideration.

A handwritten signature in black ink that reads "Ban Ki-moon". The signature is fluid and cursive, with a long vertical line extending downwards from the end of the name.

BAN Ki-moon

His Excellency
Mr. Alexis Tsipras
Prime Minister of the Hellenic Republic
Athens

THE SECRETARY-GENERAL

24 June 2016

Excellency,

I refer to the Convention on Cluster Munitions (CCM), which entered into force on 1 August 2010.

The Convention on Cluster Munitions prohibits the use, development, production, stockpiling, retaining and transfer of cluster munitions, establishes deadlines for the destruction of stockpiled cluster munitions and clearance of unexploded sub-munitions and contains robust provisions on assistance to cluster munition survivors.

I welcome the fact that 100 States have become parties to the Convention since its adoption in 2008. I support all efforts aimed at achieving universal adherence to and full implementation of the provisions of the Convention. A widely supported and strictly implemented Convention would benefit the victims of cluster munitions and affected communities, save lives and prevent enormous human suffering.

I would therefore like to encourage your country to consider, without delay, becoming a party to the Convention on Cluster Munitions. By joining the Convention, your country would contribute significantly to the strengthening of international humanitarian law in the interests of promoting international security and preserving human life.

Please accept, Excellency, the assurances of my highest consideration.

A handwritten signature in black ink that reads "Ban Ki-moon". The signature is fluid and cursive, with the first letters of each name being capitalized and prominent.

BAN Ki-moon

His Excellency
Mr. Narendra Modi
Prime Minister of the Republic of India
New Delhi

THE SECRETARY-GENERAL

24 June 2016

Excellency,

I refer to the Convention on Cluster Munitions (CCM), which entered into force on 1 August 2010.

The Convention on Cluster Munitions prohibits the use, development, production, stockpiling, retaining and transfer of cluster munitions, establishes deadlines for the destruction of stockpiled cluster munitions and clearance of unexploded sub-munitions and contains robust provisions on assistance to cluster munition survivors.

I welcome the fact that 100 States have become parties to the Convention since its adoption in 2008. I support all efforts aimed at achieving universal adherence to and full implementation of the provisions of the Convention. A widely supported and strictly implemented Convention would benefit the victims of cluster munitions and affected communities, save lives and prevent enormous human suffering.

I would therefore like to encourage your country to consider, without delay, becoming a party to the Convention on Cluster Munitions. By joining the Convention, your country would contribute significantly to the strengthening of international humanitarian law in the interests of promoting international security and preserving human life.

Please accept, Excellency, the assurances of my highest consideration.

A handwritten signature in black ink that reads "Ban Ki-moon". The signature is fluid and cursive, with a long horizontal stroke at the end.

BAN Ki-moon

His Excellency
Mr. Joko Widodo
President of the Republic of Indonesia
Jakarta

THE SECRETARY-GENERAL

24 June 2016

Excellency,

I refer to the Convention on Cluster Munitions (CCM), which entered into force on 1 August 2010.

The Convention on Cluster Munitions prohibits the use, development, production, stockpiling, retaining and transfer of cluster munitions, establishes deadlines for the destruction of stockpiled cluster munitions and clearance of unexploded sub-munitions and contains robust provisions on assistance to cluster munition survivors.

I welcome the fact that 100 States have become parties to the Convention since its adoption in 2008. I support all efforts aimed at achieving universal adherence to and full implementation of the provisions of the Convention. A widely supported and strictly implemented Convention would benefit the victims of cluster munitions and affected communities, save lives and prevent enormous human suffering.

I would therefore like to encourage your country to consider, without delay, becoming a party to the Convention on Cluster Munitions. By joining the Convention, your country would contribute significantly to the strengthening of international humanitarian law in the interests of promoting international security and preserving human life.

Please accept, Excellency, the assurances of my highest consideration.

A handwritten signature in black ink that reads "Ban Ki-moon". The signature is fluid and cursive, with a long horizontal stroke at the end.

BAN Ki-moon

His Excellency
Mr. Hassan Rouhani
President of the Islamic Republic of Iran
Tehran

THE SECRETARY-GENERAL

24 June 2016

Excellency,

I refer to the Convention on Cluster Munitions (CCM), which entered into force on 1 August 2010.

The Convention on Cluster Munitions prohibits the use, development, production, stockpiling, retaining and transfer of cluster munitions, establishes deadlines for the destruction of stockpiled cluster munitions and clearance of unexploded sub-munitions and contains robust provisions on assistance to cluster munition survivors.

I welcome the fact that 100 States have become parties to the Convention since its adoption in 2008. I support all efforts aimed at achieving universal adherence to and full implementation of the provisions of the Convention. A widely supported and strictly implemented Convention would benefit the victims of cluster munitions and affected communities, save lives and prevent enormous human suffering.

I would therefore like to encourage your country to consider, without delay, becoming a party to the Convention on Cluster Munitions. By joining the Convention, your country would contribute significantly to the strengthening of international humanitarian law in the interests of promoting international security and preserving human life.

Please accept, Excellency, the assurances of my highest consideration.

A handwritten signature in black ink that reads "Ban Ki-moon". The signature is fluid and cursive, with the first letters of each name being capitalized and prominent.

BAN Ki-moon

His Excellency
Mr. Benjamin Netanyahu
Prime Minister, Minister for Foreign Affairs,
Minister for Health and Minister for Communication of the State of Israel
Jerusalem

THE SECRETARY-GENERAL

24 June 2016

Excellency,

I refer to the Convention on Cluster Munitions (CCM), which entered into force on 1 August 2010.

The Convention on Cluster Munitions prohibits the use, development, production, stockpiling, retaining and transfer of cluster munitions, establishes deadlines for the destruction of stockpiled cluster munitions and clearance of unexploded sub-munitions and contains robust provisions on assistance to cluster munition survivors.

I welcome the fact that 100 States have become parties to the Convention since its adoption in 2008. I support all efforts aimed at achieving universal adherence to and full implementation of the provisions of the Convention. A widely supported and strictly implemented Convention would benefit the victims of cluster munitions and affected communities, save lives and prevent enormous human suffering.

I would therefore like to encourage your country to consider, without delay, becoming a party to the Convention on Cluster Munitions. By joining the Convention, your country would contribute significantly to the strengthening of international humanitarian law in the interests of promoting international security and preserving human life.

Please accept, Excellency, the assurances of my highest consideration.

A handwritten signature in black ink that reads "Ban Ki-moon". The signature is fluid and cursive, with a long horizontal stroke at the end.

BAN Ki-moon

His Excellency
Mr. Andrew Holness, ON, MP
Prime Minister , Minister of Defence,
Economic Growth and Job Creation of Jamaica
Kingston, Jamaica

THE SECRETARY-GENERAL

24 June 2016

Your Majesty,

I refer to the Convention on Cluster Munitions (CCM), which entered into force on 1 August 2010.

The Convention on Cluster Munitions prohibits the use, development, production, stockpiling, retaining and transfer of cluster munitions, establishes deadlines for the destruction of stockpiled cluster munitions and clearance of unexploded sub-munitions and contains robust provisions on assistance to cluster munition survivors.

I welcome the fact that 100 States have become parties to the Convention since its adoption in 2008. I support all efforts aimed at achieving universal adherence to and full implementation of the provisions of the Convention. A widely supported and strictly implemented Convention would benefit the victims of cluster munitions and affected communities, save lives and prevent enormous human suffering.

I would therefore like to encourage your country to consider, without delay, becoming a party to the Convention on Cluster Munitions. By joining the Convention, your country would contribute significantly to the strengthening of international humanitarian law in the interests of promoting international security and preserving human life.

Please accept, Your Majesty, the assurances of my highest consideration.

A handwritten signature in black ink that reads "Ban Ki-moon". The signature is fluid and cursive, with a long vertical line extending downwards from the end of the name.

BAN Ki-moon

His Majesty
King Abdullah II ibn Al Hussein
King of the Hashemite Kingdom of Jordan
Amman

THE SECRETARY-GENERAL

24 June 2016

Excellency,

I refer to the Convention on Cluster Munitions (CCM), which entered into force on 1 August 2010.

The Convention on Cluster Munitions prohibits the use, development, production, stockpiling, retaining and transfer of cluster munitions, establishes deadlines for the destruction of stockpiled cluster munitions and clearance of unexploded sub-munitions and contains robust provisions on assistance to cluster munition survivors.

I welcome the fact that 100 States have become parties to the Convention since its adoption in 2008. I support all efforts aimed at achieving universal adherence to and full implementation of the provisions of the Convention. A widely supported and strictly implemented Convention would benefit the victims of cluster munitions and affected communities, save lives and prevent enormous human suffering.

I would therefore like to encourage your country to consider, without delay, becoming a party to the Convention on Cluster Munitions. By joining the Convention, your country would contribute significantly to the strengthening of international humanitarian law in the interests of promoting international security and preserving human life.

Please accept, Excellency, the assurances of my highest consideration.

A handwritten signature in black ink, reading "Ban Ki-moon". The signature is fluid and cursive, with a long horizontal stroke at the end.

BAN Ki-moon

His Excellency
Mr. Nursultan A. Nazarbayev
President of the Republic of Kazakhstan
Astana

THE SECRETARY-GENERAL

24 June 2016

Excellency,

I refer to the Convention on Cluster Munitions (CCM), which entered into force on 1 August 2010.

The Convention on Cluster Munitions prohibits the use, development, production, stockpiling, retaining and transfer of cluster munitions, establishes deadlines for the destruction of stockpiled cluster munitions and clearance of unexploded sub-munitions and contains robust provisions on assistance to cluster munition survivors.

I welcome the fact that 100 States have become parties to the Convention since its adoption in 2008. I support all efforts aimed at achieving universal adherence to and full implementation of the provisions of the Convention. A widely supported and strictly implemented Convention would benefit the victims of cluster munitions and affected communities, save lives and prevent enormous human suffering.

I would therefore like to encourage your country to consider, without delay, becoming a party to the Convention on Cluster Munitions. By joining the Convention, your country would contribute significantly to the strengthening of international humanitarian law in the interests of promoting international security and preserving human life.

Please accept, Excellency, the assurances of my highest consideration.

A handwritten signature in black ink that reads "Ban Ki-moon". The signature is fluid and cursive, with the first letters of each name being capitalized and prominent.

BAN Ki-moon

His Excellency
Mr. Uhuru Kenyatta, CGH
President of the Republic of Kenya
Nairobi

THE SECRETARY-GENERAL

24 June 2016

Excellency,

I refer to the Convention on Cluster Munitions (CCM), which entered into force on 1 August 2010.

The Convention on Cluster Munitions prohibits the use, development, production, stockpiling, retaining and transfer of cluster munitions, establishes deadlines for the destruction of stockpiled cluster munitions and clearance of unexploded sub-munitions and contains robust provisions on assistance to cluster munition survivors.

I welcome the fact that 100 States have become parties to the Convention since its adoption in 2008. I support all efforts aimed at achieving universal adherence to and full implementation of the provisions of the Convention. A widely supported and strictly implemented Convention would benefit the victims of cluster munitions and affected communities, save lives and prevent enormous human suffering.

I would therefore like to encourage your country to consider, without delay, becoming a party to the Convention on Cluster Munitions. By joining the Convention, your country would contribute significantly to the strengthening of international humanitarian law in the interests of promoting international security and preserving human life.

Please accept, Excellency, the assurances of my highest consideration.

A handwritten signature in black ink that reads "Ban Ki-moon". The signature is fluid and cursive, with the first name "Ban" being the most prominent.

BAN Ki-moon

His Excellency
Mr. Taneti Maamau
President, Head of Government and Minister for Foreign Affairs and Immigration of the Republic of Kiribati
Bairiki, Tarawa

THE SECRETARY-GENERAL

24 June 2016

Your Highness,

I refer to the Convention on Cluster Munitions (CCM), which entered into force on 1 August 2010.

The Convention on Cluster Munitions prohibits the use, development, production, stockpiling, retaining and transfer of cluster munitions, establishes deadlines for the destruction of stockpiled cluster munitions and clearance of unexploded sub-munitions and contains robust provisions on assistance to cluster munition survivors.

I welcome the fact that 100 States have become parties to the Convention since its adoption in 2008. I support all efforts aimed at achieving universal adherence to and full implementation of the provisions of the Convention. A widely supported and strictly implemented Convention would benefit the victims of cluster munitions and affected communities, save lives and prevent enormous human suffering.

I would therefore like to encourage your country to consider, without delay, becoming a party to the Convention on Cluster Munitions. By joining the Convention, your country would contribute significantly to the strengthening of international humanitarian law in the interests of promoting international security and preserving human life.

Please accept, Your Highness, the assurances of my highest consideration.

A handwritten signature in black ink that reads "Ban Ki-moon".

BAN Ki-moon

His Highness
Sheikh Sabah Al-Ahmad Al-Jaber Al-Sabah
Amir of the State of Kuwait
Kuwait

THE SECRETARY-GENERAL

24 June 2016

Excellency,

I refer to the Convention on Cluster Munitions (CCM), which entered into force on 1 August 2010.

The Convention on Cluster Munitions prohibits the use, development, production, stockpiling, retaining and transfer of cluster munitions, establishes deadlines for the destruction of stockpiled cluster munitions and clearance of unexploded sub-munitions and contains robust provisions on assistance to cluster munition survivors.

I welcome the fact that 100 States have become parties to the Convention since its adoption in 2008. I support all efforts aimed at achieving universal adherence to and full implementation of the provisions of the Convention. A widely supported and strictly implemented Convention would benefit the victims of cluster munitions and affected communities, save lives and prevent enormous human suffering.

I would therefore like to encourage your country to consider, without delay, becoming a party to the Convention on Cluster Munitions. By joining the Convention, your country would contribute significantly to the strengthening of international humanitarian law in the interests of promoting international security and preserving human life.

Please accept, Excellency, the assurances of my highest consideration.

A handwritten signature in black ink that reads "Ki Moon Ban". The signature is fluid and cursive, with the first letters of each name being capitalized and prominent.

BAN Ki-moon

His Excellency
Mr. Almazbek Atambaev
President of the Kyrgyz Republic
Bishkek

THE SECRETARY-GENERAL

24 June 2016

Excellency,

I refer to the Convention on Cluster Munitions (CCM), which entered into force on 1 August 2010.

The Convention on Cluster Munitions prohibits the use, development, production, stockpiling, retaining and transfer of cluster munitions, establishes deadlines for the destruction of stockpiled cluster munitions and clearance of unexploded sub-munitions and contains robust provisions on assistance to cluster munition survivors.

I welcome the fact that 100 States have become parties to the Convention since its adoption in 2008. I support all efforts aimed at achieving universal adherence to and full implementation of the provisions of the Convention. A widely supported and strictly implemented Convention would benefit the victims of cluster munitions and affected communities, save lives and prevent enormous human suffering.

I would therefore like to encourage your country to consider, without delay, becoming a party to the Convention on Cluster Munitions. By joining the Convention, your country would contribute significantly to the strengthening of international humanitarian law in the interests of promoting international security and preserving human life.

Please accept, Excellency, the assurances of my highest consideration.

A handwritten signature in black ink that reads "Ki Moon Ban". The signature is fluid and cursive, with a long horizontal stroke at the end.

BAN Ki-moon

His Excellency
Mr. Raimonds Vējonis
President of the Republic of Latvia
Riga

THE SECRETARY-GENERAL

24 June 2016

Excellency,

I refer to the Convention on Cluster Munitions (CCM), which entered into force on 1 August 2010.

The Convention on Cluster Munitions prohibits the use, development, production, stockpiling, retaining and transfer of cluster munitions, establishes deadlines for the destruction of stockpiled cluster munitions and clearance of unexploded sub-munitions and contains robust provisions on assistance to cluster munition survivors.

I welcome the fact that 100 States have become parties to the Convention since its adoption in 2008. I support all efforts aimed at achieving universal adherence to and full implementation of the provisions of the Convention. A widely supported and strictly implemented Convention would benefit the victims of cluster munitions and affected communities, save lives and prevent enormous human suffering.

I would therefore like to encourage your country to consider, without delay, becoming a party to the Convention on Cluster Munitions. By joining the Convention, your country would contribute significantly to the strengthening of international humanitarian law in the interests of promoting international security and preserving human life.

Please accept, Excellency, the assurances of my highest consideration.

A handwritten signature in black ink that reads "Ban Ki-moon". The signature is fluid and cursive, with the first letters of each name being capitalized and prominent.

BAN Ki-moon

Her Excellency
Mrs. Ellen Johnson-Sirleaf
President of the Republic of Liberia
Monrovia

THE SECRETARY-GENERAL

24 June 2016

Excellency,

I refer to the Convention on Cluster Munitions (CCM), which entered into force on 1 August 2010.

The Convention on Cluster Munitions prohibits the use, development, production, stockpiling, retaining and transfer of cluster munitions, establishes deadlines for the destruction of stockpiled cluster munitions and clearance of unexploded sub-munitions and contains robust provisions on assistance to cluster munition survivors.

I welcome the fact that 100 States have become parties to the Convention since its adoption in 2008. I support all efforts aimed at achieving universal adherence to and full implementation of the provisions of the Convention. A widely supported and strictly implemented Convention would benefit the victims of cluster munitions and affected communities, save lives and prevent enormous human suffering.

I would therefore like to encourage your country to consider, without delay, becoming a party to the Convention on Cluster Munitions. By joining the Convention, your country would contribute significantly to the strengthening of international humanitarian law in the interests of promoting international security and preserving human life.

Please accept, Excellency, the assurances of my highest consideration.

A handwritten signature in black ink that reads "Ban Ki-moon". The signature is fluid and cursive, with the first letters of each name being capitalized and prominent.

BAN Ki-moon

His Excellency
Mr. Faiez Mustafa Serraj
President of the Presidency Council of the Government of National Accord of Libya
Tripoli

THE SECRETARY-GENERAL

24 June 2016

Excellency,

I refer to the Convention on Cluster Munitions (CCM), which entered into force on 1 August 2010.

The Convention on Cluster Munitions prohibits the use, development, production, stockpiling, retaining and transfer of cluster munitions, establishes deadlines for the destruction of stockpiled cluster munitions and clearance of unexploded sub-munitions and contains robust provisions on assistance to cluster munition survivors.

I welcome the fact that 100 States have become parties to the Convention since its adoption in 2008. I support all efforts aimed at achieving universal adherence to and full implementation of the provisions of the Convention. A widely supported and strictly implemented Convention would benefit the victims of cluster munitions and affected communities, save lives and prevent enormous human suffering.

I would therefore like to encourage your country to consider, without delay, becoming a party to the Convention on Cluster Munitions. By joining the Convention, your country would contribute significantly to the strengthening of international humanitarian law in the interests of promoting international security and preserving human life.

Please accept, Excellency, the assurances of my highest consideration.

A handwritten signature in black ink that reads "Ban Ki-moon". The signature is fluid and cursive, with the first letters of each name being capitalized and prominent.

BAN Ki-moon

His Excellency
Dato' Sri Mohd Najib bin Tun Abdul Razak
Prime Minister and Minister for Finance of Malaysia
Kuala Lumpur

THE SECRETARY-GENERAL

24 June 2016

Excellency,

I refer to the Convention on Cluster Munitions (CCM), which entered into force on 1 August 2010.

The Convention on Cluster Munitions prohibits the use, development, production, stockpiling, retaining and transfer of cluster munitions, establishes deadlines for the destruction of stockpiled cluster munitions and clearance of unexploded sub-munitions and contains robust provisions on assistance to cluster munition survivors.

I welcome the fact that 100 States have become parties to the Convention since its adoption in 2008. I support all efforts aimed at achieving universal adherence to and full implementation of the provisions of the Convention. A widely supported and strictly implemented Convention would benefit the victims of cluster munitions and affected communities, save lives and prevent enormous human suffering.

I would therefore like to encourage your country to consider, without delay, becoming a party to the Convention on Cluster Munitions. By joining the Convention, your country would contribute significantly to the strengthening of international humanitarian law in the interests of promoting international security and preserving human life.

Please accept, Excellency, the assurances of my highest consideration.

A handwritten signature in black ink that reads "Ban Ki-moon". The signature is fluid and cursive, with the first letters of each name being capitalized and prominent.

BAN Ki-moon

His Excellency
Mr. Abdulla Yameen Abdul Gayoom
President of the Republic of Maldives
Male

THE SECRETARY-GENERAL

24 June 2016

Excellency,

I refer to the Convention on Cluster Munitions (CCM), which entered into force on 1 August 2010.

The Convention on Cluster Munitions prohibits the use, development, production, stockpiling, retaining and transfer of cluster munitions, establishes deadlines for the destruction of stockpiled cluster munitions and clearance of unexploded sub-munitions and contains robust provisions on assistance to cluster munition survivors.

I welcome the fact that 100 States have become parties to the Convention since its adoption in 2008. I support all efforts aimed at achieving universal adherence to and full implementation of the provisions of the Convention. A widely supported and strictly implemented Convention would benefit the victims of cluster munitions and affected communities, save lives and prevent enormous human suffering.

I would therefore like to encourage your country to consider, without delay, becoming a party to the Convention on Cluster Munitions. By joining the Convention, your country would contribute significantly to the strengthening of international humanitarian law in the interests of promoting international security and preserving human life.

Please accept, Excellency, the assurances of my highest consideration.

A handwritten signature in black ink that reads "Ban Ki-moon". The signature is fluid and cursive, with the first letters of each name being capitalized and prominent.

BAN Ki-moon

Her Excellency
Ms. Hilda Heine
President of the Republic
of the Marshall Islands
Majuro Atoll, Marshall Islands

THE SECRETARY-GENERAL

24 June 2016

Excellency,

I refer to the Convention on Cluster Munitions (CCM), which entered into force on 1 August 2010.

The Convention on Cluster Munitions prohibits the use, development, production, stockpiling, retaining and transfer of cluster munitions, establishes deadlines for the destruction of stockpiled cluster munitions and clearance of unexploded sub-munitions and contains robust provisions on assistance to cluster munition survivors.

I welcome the fact that 100 States have become parties to the Convention since its adoption in 2008. I support all efforts aimed at achieving universal adherence to and full implementation of the provisions of the Convention. A widely supported and strictly implemented Convention would benefit the victims of cluster munitions and affected communities, save lives and prevent enormous human suffering.

I would therefore like to encourage your country to consider, without delay, becoming a party to the Convention on Cluster Munitions. By joining the Convention, your country would contribute significantly to the strengthening of international humanitarian law in the interests of promoting international security and preserving human life.

Please accept, Excellency, the assurances of my highest consideration.

A handwritten signature in black ink that reads "Ban Ki-moon". The signature is fluid and cursive, with the first letters of each name being capitalized and prominent.

BAN Ki-moon

His Excellency
Mr. Peter M. Christian
President and Head of Government of the Federated States of Micronesia
Palikir, Pohnpei

THE SECRETARY-GENERAL

24 June 2016

Excellency,

I refer to the Convention on Cluster Munitions (CCM), which entered into force on 1 August 2010.

The Convention on Cluster Munitions prohibits the use, development, production, stockpiling, retaining and transfer of cluster munitions, establishes deadlines for the destruction of stockpiled cluster munitions and clearance of unexploded sub-munitions and contains robust provisions on assistance to cluster munition survivors.

I welcome the fact that 100 States have become parties to the Convention since its adoption in 2008. I support all efforts aimed at achieving universal adherence to and full implementation of the provisions of the Convention. A widely supported and strictly implemented Convention would benefit the victims of cluster munitions and affected communities, save lives and prevent enormous human suffering.

I would therefore like to encourage your country to consider, without delay, becoming a party to the Convention on Cluster Munitions. By joining the Convention, your country would contribute significantly to the strengthening of international humanitarian law in the interests of promoting international security and preserving human life.

Please accept, Excellency, the assurances of my highest consideration.

A handwritten signature in black ink, reading "Ki Moon Ban".

BAN Ki-moon

His Excellency
Mr. Elbegdorj Tsakhia
President of Mongolia
Ulaanbaatar

THE SECRETARY-GENERAL

24 June 2016

Excellency,

I refer to the Convention on Cluster Munitions (CCM), which entered into force on 1 August 2010.

The Convention on Cluster Munitions prohibits the use, development, production, stockpiling, retaining and transfer of cluster munitions, establishes deadlines for the destruction of stockpiled cluster munitions and clearance of unexploded sub-munitions and contains robust provisions on assistance to cluster munition survivors.

I welcome the fact that 100 States have become parties to the Convention since its adoption in 2008. I support all efforts aimed at achieving universal adherence to and full implementation of the provisions of the Convention. A widely supported and strictly implemented Convention would benefit the victims of cluster munitions and affected communities, save lives and prevent enormous human suffering.

I would therefore like to encourage your country to consider, without delay, becoming a party to the Convention on Cluster Munitions. By joining the Convention, your country would contribute significantly to the strengthening of international humanitarian law in the interests of promoting international security and preserving human life.

Please accept, Excellency, the assurances of my highest consideration.

A handwritten signature in black ink, reading "Ki Moon Ban".

BAN Ki-moon

His Excellency
Mr. Htin Kyaw
President of the Republic of the Union of Myanmar
Nay Pyi Taw

THE SECRETARY-GENERAL

24 June 2016

Excellency,

I refer to the Convention on Cluster Munitions (CCM), which entered into force on 1 August 2010.

The Convention on Cluster Munitions prohibits the use, development, production, stockpiling, retaining and transfer of cluster munitions, establishes deadlines for the destruction of stockpiled cluster munitions and clearance of unexploded sub-munitions and contains robust provisions on assistance to cluster munition survivors.

I welcome the fact that 100 States have become parties to the Convention since its adoption in 2008. I support all efforts aimed at achieving universal adherence to and full implementation of the provisions of the Convention. A widely supported and strictly implemented Convention would benefit the victims of cluster munitions and affected communities, save lives and prevent enormous human suffering.

I would therefore like to encourage your country to consider, without delay, becoming a party to the Convention on Cluster Munitions. By joining the Convention, your country would contribute significantly to the strengthening of international humanitarian law in the interests of promoting international security and preserving human life.

Please accept, Excellency, the assurances of my highest consideration.

A handwritten signature in black ink that reads "Ban Ki-moon". The signature is fluid and cursive, with the first letters of each name being capitalized and prominent.

BAN Ki-moon

His Excellency
Mr. Hage G. Geingob
President of the Republic of Namibia
Windhoek

THE SECRETARY-GENERAL

24 June 2016

Excellency,

I refer to the Convention on Cluster Munitions (CCM), which entered into force on 1 August 2010.

The Convention on Cluster Munitions prohibits the use, development, production, stockpiling, retaining and transfer of cluster munitions, establishes deadlines for the destruction of stockpiled cluster munitions and clearance of unexploded sub-munitions and contains robust provisions on assistance to cluster munition survivors.

I welcome the fact that 100 States have become parties to the Convention since its adoption in 2008. I support all efforts aimed at achieving universal adherence to and full implementation of the provisions of the Convention. A widely supported and strictly implemented Convention would benefit the victims of cluster munitions and affected communities, save lives and prevent enormous human suffering.

I would therefore like to encourage your country to consider, without delay, becoming a party to the Convention on Cluster Munitions. By joining the Convention, your country would contribute significantly to the strengthening of international humanitarian law in the interests of promoting international security and preserving human life.

Please accept, Excellency, the assurances of my highest consideration.

A handwritten signature in black ink that reads "Ban Ki-moon". The signature is fluid and cursive, with the first letters of each name being capitalized and prominent.

BAN Ki-moon

His Excellency
Mr. K.P. Sharma Oli
Prime Minister of the Federal Democratic Republic of Nepal
Kathmandu

THE SECRETARY-GENERAL

24 June 2016

Excellency,

I refer to the Convention on Cluster Munitions (CCM), which entered into force on 1 August 2010.

The Convention on Cluster Munitions prohibits the use, development, production, stockpiling, retaining and transfer of cluster munitions, establishes deadlines for the destruction of stockpiled cluster munitions and clearance of unexploded sub-munitions and contains robust provisions on assistance to cluster munition survivors.

I welcome the fact that 100 States have become parties to the Convention since its adoption in 2008. I support all efforts aimed at achieving universal adherence to and full implementation of the provisions of the Convention. A widely supported and strictly implemented Convention would benefit the victims of cluster munitions and affected communities, save lives and prevent enormous human suffering.

I would therefore like to encourage your country to consider, without delay, becoming a party to the Convention on Cluster Munitions. By joining the Convention, your country would contribute significantly to the strengthening of international humanitarian law in the interests of promoting international security and preserving human life.

Please accept, Excellency, the assurances of my highest consideration.

A handwritten signature in black ink that reads "Ban Ki-moon". The signature is fluid and cursive, with a long horizontal stroke at the end.

BAN Ki-moon

His Excellency
Mr. Muhammadu Buhari
President of the Federal Republic of Nigeria
Abuja

THE SECRETARY-GENERAL

24 June 2016

Your Majesty,

I refer to the Convention on Cluster Munitions (CCM), which entered into force on 1 August 2010.

The Convention on Cluster Munitions prohibits the use, development, production, stockpiling, retaining and transfer of cluster munitions, establishes deadlines for the destruction of stockpiled cluster munitions and clearance of unexploded sub-munitions and contains robust provisions on assistance to cluster munition survivors.

I welcome the fact that 100 States have become parties to the Convention since its adoption in 2008. I support all efforts aimed at achieving universal adherence to and full implementation of the provisions of the Convention. A widely supported and strictly implemented Convention would benefit the victims of cluster munitions and affected communities, save lives and prevent enormous human suffering.

I would therefore like to encourage your country to consider, without delay, becoming a party to the Convention on Cluster Munitions. By joining the Convention, your country would contribute significantly to the strengthening of international humanitarian law in the interests of promoting international security and preserving human life.

Please accept, Your Majesty, the assurances of my highest consideration.

A handwritten signature in black ink that reads "Ki Moon Ban".

BAN Ki-moon

His Majesty
Sultan Qaboos Bin Said
Muscat
The Sultanate of Oman

THE SECRETARY-GENERAL

24 June 2016

Excellency,

I refer to the Convention on Cluster Munitions (CCM), which entered into force on 1 August 2010.

The Convention on Cluster Munitions prohibits the use, development, production, stockpiling, retaining and transfer of cluster munitions, establishes deadlines for the destruction of stockpiled cluster munitions and clearance of unexploded sub-munitions and contains robust provisions on assistance to cluster munition survivors.

I welcome the fact that 100 States have become parties to the Convention since its adoption in 2008. I support all efforts aimed at achieving universal adherence to and full implementation of the provisions of the Convention. A widely supported and strictly implemented Convention would benefit the victims of cluster munitions and affected communities, save lives and prevent enormous human suffering.

I would therefore like to encourage your country to consider, without delay, becoming a party to the Convention on Cluster Munitions. By joining the Convention, your country would contribute significantly to the strengthening of international humanitarian law in the interests of promoting international security and preserving human life.

Please accept, Excellency, the assurances of my highest consideration.

A handwritten signature in black ink that reads "Ban Ki-moon". The signature is fluid and cursive, with the first letters of each name being capitalized and prominent.

BAN Ki-moon

His Excellency
Mr. Mamnoon Hussain
President of the Islamic Republic of Pakistan
Islamabad

THE SECRETARY-GENERAL

24 June 2016

Excellency,

I refer to the Convention on Cluster Munitions (CCM), which entered into force on 1 August 2010.

The Convention on Cluster Munitions prohibits the use, development, production, stockpiling, retaining and transfer of cluster munitions, establishes deadlines for the destruction of stockpiled cluster munitions and clearance of unexploded sub-munitions and contains robust provisions on assistance to cluster munition survivors.

I welcome the fact that 100 States have become parties to the Convention since its adoption in 2008. I support all efforts aimed at achieving universal adherence to and full implementation of the provisions of the Convention. A widely supported and strictly implemented Convention would benefit the victims of cluster munitions and affected communities, save lives and prevent enormous human suffering.

I would therefore like to encourage your country to consider, without delay, becoming a party to the Convention on Cluster Munitions. By joining the Convention, your country would contribute significantly to the strengthening of international humanitarian law in the interests of promoting international security and preserving human life.

Please accept, Excellency, the assurances of my highest consideration.

A handwritten signature in black ink that reads "Ban Ki-moon". The signature is fluid and cursive, with the first letters of each name being capitalized and prominent.

BAN Ki-moon

His Excellency
Mr. Peter Paire O'Neill, CMG, MP
Prime Minister of the Independent State of Papua New Guinea
Port Moresby

THE SECRETARY-GENERAL

24 June 2016

Excellency,

I refer to the Convention on Cluster Munitions (CCM), which entered into force on 1 August 2010.

The Convention on Cluster Munitions prohibits the use, development, production, stockpiling, retaining and transfer of cluster munitions, establishes deadlines for the destruction of stockpiled cluster munitions and clearance of unexploded sub-munitions and contains robust provisions on assistance to cluster munition survivors.

I welcome the fact that 100 States have become parties to the Convention since its adoption in 2008. I support all efforts aimed at achieving universal adherence to and full implementation of the provisions of the Convention. A widely supported and strictly implemented Convention would benefit the victims of cluster munitions and affected communities, save lives and prevent enormous human suffering.

I would therefore like to encourage your country to consider, without delay, becoming a party to the Convention on Cluster Munitions. By joining the Convention, your country would contribute significantly to the strengthening of international humanitarian law in the interests of promoting international security and preserving human life.

Please accept, Excellency, the assurances of my highest consideration.

A handwritten signature in black ink that reads "Ban Ki-moon". The signature is fluid and cursive, with the first letters of each name being capitalized and prominent.

BAN Ki-moon

His Excellency
Mr. Benigno S. Aquino III
President of the Republic of the Philippines
Manila

THE SECRETARY-GENERAL

24 June 2016

Excellency,

I refer to the Convention on Cluster Munitions (CCM), which entered into force on 1 August 2010.

The Convention on Cluster Munitions prohibits the use, development, production, stockpiling, retaining and transfer of cluster munitions, establishes deadlines for the destruction of stockpiled cluster munitions and clearance of unexploded sub-munitions and contains robust provisions on assistance to cluster munition survivors.

I welcome the fact that 100 States have become parties to the Convention since its adoption in 2008. I support all efforts aimed at achieving universal adherence to and full implementation of the provisions of the Convention. A widely supported and strictly implemented Convention would benefit the victims of cluster munitions and affected communities, save lives and prevent enormous human suffering.

I would therefore like to encourage your country to consider, without delay, becoming a party to the Convention on Cluster Munitions. By joining the Convention, your country would contribute significantly to the strengthening of international humanitarian law in the interests of promoting international security and preserving human life.

Please accept, Excellency, the assurances of my highest consideration.

A handwritten signature in black ink that reads "Ki Moon Ban".

BAN Ki-moon

His Excellency
Mr. Andrzej Duda
President of the Republic of Poland
Warsaw

THE SECRETARY-GENERAL

24 June 2016

Your Highness,

I refer to the Convention on Cluster Munitions (CCM), which entered into force on 1 August 2010.

The Convention on Cluster Munitions prohibits the use, development, production, stockpiling, retaining and transfer of cluster munitions, establishes deadlines for the destruction of stockpiled cluster munitions and clearance of unexploded sub-munitions and contains robust provisions on assistance to cluster munition survivors.

I welcome the fact that 100 States have become parties to the Convention since its adoption in 2008. I support all efforts aimed at achieving universal adherence to and full implementation of the provisions of the Convention. A widely supported and strictly implemented Convention would benefit the victims of cluster munitions and affected communities, save lives and prevent enormous human suffering.

I would therefore like to encourage your country to consider, without delay, becoming a party to the Convention on Cluster Munitions. By joining the Convention, your country would contribute significantly to the strengthening of international humanitarian law in the interests of promoting international security and preserving human life.

Please accept, Your Highness, the assurances of my highest consideration.

A handwritten signature in black ink that reads "Ban Ki-moon". The signature is fluid and cursive, with a long horizontal stroke at the end.

BAN Ki-moon

His Highness
Sheikh Tamim bin Hamad Al-Thani
Amir of the State of Qatar
Doha

THE SECRETARY-GENERAL

24 June 2016

Excellency,

I refer to the Convention on Cluster Munitions (CCM), which entered into force on 1 August 2010.

The Convention on Cluster Munitions prohibits the use, development, production, stockpiling, retaining and transfer of cluster munitions, establishes deadlines for the destruction of stockpiled cluster munitions and clearance of unexploded sub-munitions and contains robust provisions on assistance to cluster munition survivors.

I welcome the fact that 100 States have become parties to the Convention since its adoption in 2008. I support all efforts aimed at achieving universal adherence to and full implementation of the provisions of the Convention. A widely supported and strictly implemented Convention would benefit the victims of cluster munitions and affected communities, save lives and prevent enormous human suffering.

I would therefore like to encourage your country to consider, without delay, becoming a party to the Convention on Cluster Munitions. By joining the Convention, your country would contribute significantly to the strengthening of international humanitarian law in the interests of promoting international security and preserving human life.

Please accept, Excellency, the assurances of my highest consideration.

A handwritten signature in black ink that reads "Ban Ki-moon". The signature is fluid and cursive, with a long vertical line extending downwards from the end of the name.

BAN Ki-moon

Her Excellency
Ms. Park Geun Hye
President of the Republic of Korea
Seoul

THE SECRETARY-GENERAL

24 June 2016

Excellency,

I refer to the Convention on Cluster Munitions (CCM), which entered into force on 1 August 2010.

The Convention on Cluster Munitions prohibits the use, development, production, stockpiling, retaining and transfer of cluster munitions, establishes deadlines for the destruction of stockpiled cluster munitions and clearance of unexploded sub-munitions and contains robust provisions on assistance to cluster munition survivors.

I welcome the fact that 100 States have become parties to the Convention since its adoption in 2008. I support all efforts aimed at achieving universal adherence to and full implementation of the provisions of the Convention. A widely supported and strictly implemented Convention would benefit the victims of cluster munitions and affected communities, save lives and prevent enormous human suffering.

I would therefore like to encourage your country to consider, without delay, becoming a party to the Convention on Cluster Munitions. By joining the Convention, your country would contribute significantly to the strengthening of international humanitarian law in the interests of promoting international security and preserving human life.

Please accept, Excellency, the assurances of my highest consideration.

A handwritten signature in black ink that reads "Ban Ki-moon".

BAN Ki-moon

His Excellency
Mr. Vladimir V. Putin
President of the Russian Federation
Moscow

THE SECRETARY-GENERAL

24 June 2016

Excellency,

I refer to the Convention on Cluster Munitions (CCM), which entered into force on 1 August 2010.

The Convention on Cluster Munitions prohibits the use, development, production, stockpiling, retaining and transfer of cluster munitions, establishes deadlines for the destruction of stockpiled cluster munitions and clearance of unexploded sub-munitions and contains robust provisions on assistance to cluster munition survivors.

I welcome the fact that 100 States have become parties to the Convention since its adoption in 2008. I support all efforts aimed at achieving universal adherence to and full implementation of the provisions of the Convention. A widely supported and strictly implemented Convention would benefit the victims of cluster munitions and affected communities, save lives and prevent enormous human suffering.

I would therefore like to encourage your country to consider, without delay, becoming a party to the Convention on Cluster Munitions. By joining the Convention, your country would contribute significantly to the strengthening of international humanitarian law in the interests of promoting international security and preserving human life.

Please accept, Excellency, the assurances of my highest consideration.

A handwritten signature in black ink that reads "Ban Ki-moon". The signature is fluid and cursive, with a long horizontal stroke at the end.

BAN Ki-moon

His Excellency
Mr. Allen Michael Chastanet
Prime Minister , Minister for Finance,
Economic Growth, Job Creation,
External Affairs and the Public Service
Castries

THE SECRETARY-GENERAL

24 June 2016

Your Majesty,

I refer to the Convention on Cluster Munitions (CCM), which entered into force on 1 August 2010.

The Convention on Cluster Munitions prohibits the use, development, production, stockpiling, retaining and transfer of cluster munitions, establishes deadlines for the destruction of stockpiled cluster munitions and clearance of unexploded sub-munitions and contains robust provisions on assistance to cluster munition survivors.

I welcome the fact that 100 States have become parties to the Convention since its adoption in 2008. I support all efforts aimed at achieving universal adherence to and full implementation of the provisions of the Convention. A widely supported and strictly implemented Convention would benefit the victims of cluster munitions and affected communities, save lives and prevent enormous human suffering.

I would therefore like to encourage your country to consider, without delay, becoming a party to the Convention on Cluster Munitions. By joining the Convention, your country would contribute significantly to the strengthening of international humanitarian law in the interests of promoting international security and preserving human life.

Please accept, Your Majesty, the assurances of my highest consideration.

A handwritten signature in black ink, reading "Ban Ki-moon". The signature is fluid and cursive, with a long horizontal stroke at the end.

BAN Ki-moon

The Custodian of the Two Holy Mosques
King Salman Bin Abdulaziz Al-Saud
King of Saudi Arabia and Prime Minister of the Kingdom of Saudi Arabia
Riyadh

THE SECRETARY-GENERAL

24 June 2016

Excellency,

I refer to the Convention on Cluster Munitions (CCM), which entered into force on 1 August 2010.

The Convention on Cluster Munitions prohibits the use, development, production, stockpiling, retaining and transfer of cluster munitions, establishes deadlines for the destruction of stockpiled cluster munitions and clearance of unexploded sub-munitions and contains robust provisions on assistance to cluster munition survivors.

I welcome the fact that 100 States have become parties to the Convention since its adoption in 2008. I support all efforts aimed at achieving universal adherence to and full implementation of the provisions of the Convention. A widely supported and strictly implemented Convention would benefit the victims of cluster munitions and affected communities, save lives and prevent enormous human suffering.

I would therefore like to encourage your country to consider, without delay, becoming a party to the Convention on Cluster Munitions. By joining the Convention, your country would contribute significantly to the strengthening of international humanitarian law in the interests of promoting international security and preserving human life.

Please accept, Excellency, the assurances of my highest consideration.

A handwritten signature in black ink that reads "Ban Ki-moon". The signature is fluid and cursive, with a long horizontal stroke at the end.

BAN Ki-moon

His Excellency
Mr. Tomislav Nikolić
President of the Republic of Serbia
Belgrade

THE SECRETARY-GENERAL

24 June 2016

Excellency,

I refer to the Convention on Cluster Munitions (CCM), which entered into force on 1 August 2010.

The Convention on Cluster Munitions prohibits the use, development, production, stockpiling, retaining and transfer of cluster munitions, establishes deadlines for the destruction of stockpiled cluster munitions and clearance of unexploded sub-munitions and contains robust provisions on assistance to cluster munition survivors.

I welcome the fact that 100 States have become parties to the Convention since its adoption in 2008. I support all efforts aimed at achieving universal adherence to and full implementation of the provisions of the Convention. A widely supported and strictly implemented Convention would benefit the victims of cluster munitions and affected communities, save lives and prevent enormous human suffering.

I would therefore like to encourage your country to consider, without delay, becoming a party to the Convention on Cluster Munitions. By joining the Convention, your country would contribute significantly to the strengthening of international humanitarian law in the interests of promoting international security and preserving human life.

Please accept, Excellency, the assurances of my highest consideration.

A handwritten signature in black ink that reads "Ban Ki-moon". The signature is fluid and cursive, with the first letters of each name being capitalized and prominent.

BAN Ki-moon

His Excellency
Mr. Lee Hsien Loong
Prime Minister of the Republic of Singapore
Singapore

THE SECRETARY-GENERAL

24 June 2016

Excellency,

I refer to the Convention on Cluster Munitions (CCM), which entered into force on 1 August 2010.

The Convention on Cluster Munitions prohibits the use, development, production, stockpiling, retaining and transfer of cluster munitions, establishes deadlines for the destruction of stockpiled cluster munitions and clearance of unexploded sub-munitions and contains robust provisions on assistance to cluster munition survivors.

I welcome the fact that 100 States have become parties to the Convention since its adoption in 2008. I support all efforts aimed at achieving universal adherence to and full implementation of the provisions of the Convention. A widely supported and strictly implemented Convention would benefit the victims of cluster munitions and affected communities, save lives and prevent enormous human suffering.

I would therefore like to encourage your country to consider, without delay, becoming a party to the Convention on Cluster Munitions. By joining the Convention, your country would contribute significantly to the strengthening of international humanitarian law in the interests of promoting international security and preserving human life.

Please accept, Excellency, the assurances of my highest consideration.

A handwritten signature in black ink that reads "Ban Ki-moon". The signature is fluid and cursive, with the first name "Ban" being particularly prominent.

BAN Ki-moon

His Excellency
Mr. Manasseh Sogavare
Prime Minister of Solomon Islands
Honiara

THE SECRETARY-GENERAL

24 June 2016

Excellency,

I refer to the Convention on Cluster Munitions (CCM), which entered into force on 1 August 2010.

The Convention on Cluster Munitions prohibits the use, development, production, stockpiling, retaining and transfer of cluster munitions, establishes deadlines for the destruction of stockpiled cluster munitions and clearance of unexploded sub-munitions and contains robust provisions on assistance to cluster munition survivors.

I welcome the fact that 100 States have become parties to the Convention since its adoption in 2008. I support all efforts aimed at achieving universal adherence to and full implementation of the provisions of the Convention. A widely supported and strictly implemented Convention would benefit the victims of cluster munitions and affected communities, save lives and prevent enormous human suffering.

I would therefore like to encourage your country to consider, without delay, becoming a party to the Convention on Cluster Munitions. By joining the Convention, your country would contribute significantly to the strengthening of international humanitarian law in the interests of promoting international security and preserving human life.

Please accept, Excellency, the assurances of my highest consideration.

A handwritten signature in black ink that reads "Ban Ki-moon". The signature is fluid and cursive, with the first letters of each name being capitalized and prominent.

BAN Ki-moon

His Excellency
Mr. Salva Kiir
President of the Republic of South Sudan
Juba

THE SECRETARY-GENERAL

24 June 2016

Excellency,

I refer to the Convention on Cluster Munitions (CCM), which entered into force on 1 August 2010.

The Convention on Cluster Munitions prohibits the use, development, production, stockpiling, retaining and transfer of cluster munitions, establishes deadlines for the destruction of stockpiled cluster munitions and clearance of unexploded sub-munitions and contains robust provisions on assistance to cluster munition survivors.

I welcome the fact that 100 States have become parties to the Convention since its adoption in 2008. I support all efforts aimed at achieving universal adherence to and full implementation of the provisions of the Convention. A widely supported and strictly implemented Convention would benefit the victims of cluster munitions and affected communities, save lives and prevent enormous human suffering.

I would therefore like to encourage your country to consider, without delay, becoming a party to the Convention on Cluster Munitions. By joining the Convention, your country would contribute significantly to the strengthening of international humanitarian law in the interests of promoting international security and preserving human life.

Please accept, Excellency, the assurances of my highest consideration.

A handwritten signature in black ink that reads "Ban Ki-moon". The signature is fluid and cursive, with the first letters of each name being capitalized and prominent.

BAN Ki-moon

His Excellency
Mr. Maithripala Sirisena
President of the Democratic Socialist Republic of Sri Lanka
Colombo

THE SECRETARY-GENERAL

24 June 2016

Excellency,

I refer to the Convention on Cluster Munitions (CCM), which entered into force on 1 August 2010.

The Convention on Cluster Munitions prohibits the use, development, production, stockpiling, retaining and transfer of cluster munitions, establishes deadlines for the destruction of stockpiled cluster munitions and clearance of unexploded sub-munitions and contains robust provisions on assistance to cluster munition survivors.

I welcome the fact that 100 States have become parties to the Convention since its adoption in 2008. I support all efforts aimed at achieving universal adherence to and full implementation of the provisions of the Convention. A widely supported and strictly implemented Convention would benefit the victims of cluster munitions and affected communities, save lives and prevent enormous human suffering.

I would therefore like to encourage your country to consider, without delay, becoming a party to the Convention on Cluster Munitions. By joining the Convention, your country would contribute significantly to the strengthening of international humanitarian law in the interests of promoting international security and preserving human life.

Please accept, Excellency, the assurances of my highest consideration.

A handwritten signature in black ink that reads "Ban Ki-moon". The signature is fluid and cursive, with the first letters of each name being capitalized and prominent.

BAN Ki-moon

His Excellency
Field Marshall Omar Hassan A. Al-Bashir
President of the Republic of the Sudan
Khartoum

THE SECRETARY-GENERAL

24 June 2016

Excellency,

I refer to the Convention on Cluster Munitions (CCM), which entered into force on 1 August 2010.

The Convention on Cluster Munitions prohibits the use, development, production, stockpiling, retaining and transfer of cluster munitions, establishes deadlines for the destruction of stockpiled cluster munitions and clearance of unexploded sub-munitions and contains robust provisions on assistance to cluster munition survivors.

I welcome the fact that 100 States have become parties to the Convention since its adoption in 2008. I support all efforts aimed at achieving universal adherence to and full implementation of the provisions of the Convention. A widely supported and strictly implemented Convention would benefit the victims of cluster munitions and affected communities, save lives and prevent enormous human suffering.

I would therefore like to encourage your country to consider, without delay, becoming a party to the Convention on Cluster Munitions. By joining the Convention, your country would contribute significantly to the strengthening of international humanitarian law in the interests of promoting international security and preserving human life.

Please accept, Excellency, the assurances of my highest consideration.

A handwritten signature in black ink that reads "Ki Moon Ban". The signature is fluid and cursive, with the first letters of each name being capitalized and prominent.

BAN Ki-moon

His Excellency
Mr. Desiré Delano Bouterse
President of the Republic of Suriname
Paramaribo

THE SECRETARY-GENERAL

24 June 2016

Excellency,

I refer to the Convention on Cluster Munitions (CCM), which entered into force on 1 August 2010.

The Convention on Cluster Munitions prohibits the use, development, production, stockpiling, retaining and transfer of cluster munitions, establishes deadlines for the destruction of stockpiled cluster munitions and clearance of unexploded sub-munitions and contains robust provisions on assistance to cluster munition survivors.

I welcome the fact that 100 States have become parties to the Convention since its adoption in 2008. I support all efforts aimed at achieving universal adherence to and full implementation of the provisions of the Convention. A widely supported and strictly implemented Convention would benefit the victims of cluster munitions and affected communities, save lives and prevent enormous human suffering.

I would therefore like to encourage your country to consider, without delay, becoming a party to the Convention on Cluster Munitions. By joining the Convention, your country would contribute significantly to the strengthening of international humanitarian law in the interests of promoting international security and preserving human life.

Please accept, Excellency, the assurances of my highest consideration.

A handwritten signature in black ink that reads "Ki Moon Ban". The signature is fluid and cursive, with the first letters of each name being capitalized and prominent.

BAN Ki-moon

His Excellency
Dr. Bashar Al-Assad
President of the Syrian Arab Republic
Damascus

THE SECRETARY-GENERAL

24 June 2016

Excellency,

I refer to the Convention on Cluster Munitions (CCM), which entered into force on 1 August 2010.

The Convention on Cluster Munitions prohibits the use, development, production, stockpiling, retaining and transfer of cluster munitions, establishes deadlines for the destruction of stockpiled cluster munitions and clearance of unexploded sub-munitions and contains robust provisions on assistance to cluster munition survivors.

I welcome the fact that 100 States have become parties to the Convention since its adoption in 2008. I support all efforts aimed at achieving universal adherence to and full implementation of the provisions of the Convention. A widely supported and strictly implemented Convention would benefit the victims of cluster munitions and affected communities, save lives and prevent enormous human suffering.

I would therefore like to encourage your country to consider, without delay, becoming a party to the Convention on Cluster Munitions. By joining the Convention, your country would contribute significantly to the strengthening of international humanitarian law in the interests of promoting international security and preserving human life.

Please accept, Excellency, the assurances of my highest consideration.

A handwritten signature in black ink that reads "Ki Moon Ban". The signature is fluid and cursive, with the first letters of each name being capitalized and prominent.

BAN Ki-moon

His Excellency
Mr. Emomali Rahmon
President of the Republic of Tajikistan
Dushanbe

THE SECRETARY-GENERAL

24 June 2016

Excellency,

I refer to the Convention on Cluster Munitions (CCM), which entered into force on 1 August 2010.

The Convention on Cluster Munitions prohibits the use, development, production, stockpiling, retaining and transfer of cluster munitions, establishes deadlines for the destruction of stockpiled cluster munitions and clearance of unexploded sub-munitions and contains robust provisions on assistance to cluster munition survivors.

I welcome the fact that 100 States have become parties to the Convention since its adoption in 2008. I support all efforts aimed at achieving universal adherence to and full implementation of the provisions of the Convention. A widely supported and strictly implemented Convention would benefit the victims of cluster munitions and affected communities, save lives and prevent enormous human suffering.

I would therefore like to encourage your country to consider, without delay, becoming a party to the Convention on Cluster Munitions. By joining the Convention, your country would contribute significantly to the strengthening of international humanitarian law in the interests of promoting international security and preserving human life.

Please accept, Excellency, the assurances of my highest consideration.

A handwritten signature in black ink, reading "Ban Ki-moon". The signature is fluid and cursive, with the first letters of each name being capitalized and prominent.

BAN Ki-moon

His Excellency
General Prayut Chan-o-cha (Ret).
Prime Minister of the Kingdom of Thailand
Bangkok

THE SECRETARY-GENERAL

24 June 2016

Excellency,

I refer to the Convention on Cluster Munitions (CCM), which entered into force on 1 August 2010.

The Convention on Cluster Munitions prohibits the use, development, production, stockpiling, retaining and transfer of cluster munitions, establishes deadlines for the destruction of stockpiled cluster munitions and clearance of unexploded sub-munitions and contains robust provisions on assistance to cluster munition survivors.

I welcome the fact that 100 States have become parties to the Convention since its adoption in 2008. I support all efforts aimed at achieving universal adherence to and full implementation of the provisions of the Convention. A widely supported and strictly implemented Convention would benefit the victims of cluster munitions and affected communities, save lives and prevent enormous human suffering.

I would therefore like to encourage your country to consider, without delay, becoming a party to the Convention on Cluster Munitions. By joining the Convention, your country would contribute significantly to the strengthening of international humanitarian law in the interests of promoting international security and preserving human life.

Please accept, Excellency, the assurances of my highest consideration.

A handwritten signature in black ink that reads "Ban Ki-moon". The signature is fluid and cursive, with the first letters of each name being capitalized and prominent.

BAN Ki-moon

His Excellency
Mr. Taur Matan Ruak
President of the Democratic Republic of Timor-Leste
Dili

THE SECRETARY-GENERAL

24 June 2016

Excellency,

I refer to the Convention on Cluster Munitions (CCM), which entered into force on 1 August 2010.

The Convention on Cluster Munitions prohibits the use, development, production, stockpiling, retaining and transfer of cluster munitions, establishes deadlines for the destruction of stockpiled cluster munitions and clearance of unexploded sub-munitions and contains robust provisions on assistance to cluster munition survivors.

I welcome the fact that 100 States have become parties to the Convention since its adoption in 2008. I support all efforts aimed at achieving universal adherence to and full implementation of the provisions of the Convention. A widely supported and strictly implemented Convention would benefit the victims of cluster munitions and affected communities, save lives and prevent enormous human suffering.

I would therefore like to encourage your country to consider, without delay, becoming a party to the Convention on Cluster Munitions. By joining the Convention, your country would contribute significantly to the strengthening of international humanitarian law in the interests of promoting international security and preserving human life.

Please accept, Excellency, the assurances of my highest consideration.

A handwritten signature in black ink that reads "Ban Ki-moon". The signature is fluid and cursive, with the first letters of each name being capitalized and prominent.

BAN Ki-moon

His Excellency
Mr. Samiuela 'Akilisi Pohiva
Prime Minister, Minister for Foreign Affairs and Trade, Minister for Education and Training of the Kingdom of Tonga
Nuku'alofa

THE SECRETARY-GENERAL

24 June 2016

Excellency,

I refer to the Convention on Cluster Munitions (CCM), which entered into force on 1 August 2010.

The Convention on Cluster Munitions prohibits the use, development, production, stockpiling, retaining and transfer of cluster munitions, establishes deadlines for the destruction of stockpiled cluster munitions and clearance of unexploded sub-munitions and contains robust provisions on assistance to cluster munition survivors.

I welcome the fact that 100 States have become parties to the Convention since its adoption in 2008. I support all efforts aimed at achieving universal adherence to and full implementation of the provisions of the Convention. A widely supported and strictly implemented Convention would benefit the victims of cluster munitions and affected communities, save lives and prevent enormous human suffering.

I would therefore like to encourage your country to consider, without delay, becoming a party to the Convention on Cluster Munitions. By joining the Convention, your country would contribute significantly to the strengthening of international humanitarian law in the interests of promoting international security and preserving human life.

Please accept, Excellency, the assurances of my highest consideration.

A handwritten signature in black ink that reads "Ban Ki-moon". The signature is fluid and cursive, with a long horizontal stroke at the end.

BAN Ki-moon

His Excellency
Mr. Recep Tayyip Erdoğan
President of the Republic of Turkey
Ankara

THE SECRETARY-GENERAL

24 June 2016

Excellency,

I refer to the Convention on Cluster Munitions (CCM), which entered into force on 1 August 2010.

The Convention on Cluster Munitions prohibits the use, development, production, stockpiling, retaining and transfer of cluster munitions, establishes deadlines for the destruction of stockpiled cluster munitions and clearance of unexploded sub-munitions and contains robust provisions on assistance to cluster munition survivors.

I welcome the fact that 100 States have become parties to the Convention since its adoption in 2008. I support all efforts aimed at achieving universal adherence to and full implementation of the provisions of the Convention. A widely supported and strictly implemented Convention would benefit the victims of cluster munitions and affected communities, save lives and prevent enormous human suffering.

I would therefore like to encourage your country to consider, without delay, becoming a party to the Convention on Cluster Munitions. By joining the Convention, your country would contribute significantly to the strengthening of international humanitarian law in the interests of promoting international security and preserving human life.

Please accept, Excellency, the assurances of my highest consideration.

A handwritten signature in black ink that reads "Ban Ki-moon". The signature is fluid and cursive, with a long horizontal stroke at the end.

BAN Ki-moon

His Excellency
Mr. Gurbanguly Berdimuhamedov
President of Turkmenistan
Ashgabat

THE SECRETARY-GENERAL

24 June 2016

Excellency,

I refer to the Convention on Cluster Munitions (CCM), which entered into force on 1 August 2010.

The Convention on Cluster Munitions prohibits the use, development, production, stockpiling, retaining and transfer of cluster munitions, establishes deadlines for the destruction of stockpiled cluster munitions and clearance of unexploded sub-munitions and contains robust provisions on assistance to cluster munition survivors.

I welcome the fact that 100 States have become parties to the Convention since its adoption in 2008. I support all efforts aimed at achieving universal adherence to and full implementation of the provisions of the Convention. A widely supported and strictly implemented Convention would benefit the victims of cluster munitions and affected communities, save lives and prevent enormous human suffering.

I would therefore like to encourage your country to consider, without delay, becoming a party to the Convention on Cluster Munitions. By joining the Convention, your country would contribute significantly to the strengthening of international humanitarian law in the interests of promoting international security and preserving human life.

Please accept, Excellency, the assurances of my highest consideration.

A handwritten signature in black ink that reads "Ban Ki-moon". The signature is fluid and cursive, with the first letters of each name being capitalized and prominent.

BAN Ki-moon

His Excellency
Mr. Enele Sosene Sopoaga, OBE
Prime Minister and Minister for Public Utilities of Tuvalu
Funafuti

THE SECRETARY-GENERAL

24 June 2016

Excellency,

I refer to the Convention on Cluster Munitions (CCM), which entered into force on 1 August 2010.

The Convention on Cluster Munitions prohibits the use, development, production, stockpiling, retaining and transfer of cluster munitions, establishes deadlines for the destruction of stockpiled cluster munitions and clearance of unexploded sub-munitions and contains robust provisions on assistance to cluster munition survivors.

I welcome the fact that 100 States have become parties to the Convention since its adoption in 2008. I support all efforts aimed at achieving universal adherence to and full implementation of the provisions of the Convention. A widely supported and strictly implemented Convention would benefit the victims of cluster munitions and affected communities, save lives and prevent enormous human suffering.

I would therefore like to encourage your country to consider, without delay, becoming a party to the Convention on Cluster Munitions. By joining the Convention, your country would contribute significantly to the strengthening of international humanitarian law in the interests of promoting international security and preserving human life.

Please accept, Excellency, the assurances of my highest consideration.

A handwritten signature in black ink that reads "Ban Ki-moon". The signature is fluid and cursive, with the first letters of each name being capitalized and prominent.

BAN Ki-moon

His Excellency
Mr. Yoweri Kaguta Museveni
President of the Republic of Uganda
Kampala

THE SECRETARY-GENERAL

24 June 2016

Excellency,

I refer to the Convention on Cluster Munitions (CCM), which entered into force on 1 August 2010.

The Convention on Cluster Munitions prohibits the use, development, production, stockpiling, retaining and transfer of cluster munitions, establishes deadlines for the destruction of stockpiled cluster munitions and clearance of unexploded sub-munitions and contains robust provisions on assistance to cluster munition survivors.

I welcome the fact that 100 States have become parties to the Convention since its adoption in 2008. I support all efforts aimed at achieving universal adherence to and full implementation of the provisions of the Convention. A widely supported and strictly implemented Convention would benefit the victims of cluster munitions and affected communities, save lives and prevent enormous human suffering.

I would therefore like to encourage your country to consider, without delay, becoming a party to the Convention on Cluster Munitions. By joining the Convention, your country would contribute significantly to the strengthening of international humanitarian law in the interests of promoting international security and preserving human life.

Please accept, Excellency, the assurances of my highest consideration.

A handwritten signature in black ink that reads "Ban Ki-moon".

BAN Ki-moon

His Excellency
Mr. Petro Poroshenko
President of Ukraine
Kyiv

THE SECRETARY-GENERAL

24 June 2016

Your Highness,

I refer to the Convention on Cluster Munitions (CCM), which entered into force on 1 August 2010.

The Convention on Cluster Munitions prohibits the use, development, production, stockpiling, retaining and transfer of cluster munitions, establishes deadlines for the destruction of stockpiled cluster munitions and clearance of unexploded sub-munitions and contains robust provisions on assistance to cluster munition survivors.

I welcome the fact that 100 States have become parties to the Convention since its adoption in 2008. I support all efforts aimed at achieving universal adherence to and full implementation of the provisions of the Convention. A widely supported and strictly implemented Convention would benefit the victims of cluster munitions and affected communities, save lives and prevent enormous human suffering.

I would therefore like to encourage your country to consider, without delay, becoming a party to the Convention on Cluster Munitions. By joining the Convention, your country would contribute significantly to the strengthening of international humanitarian law in the interests of promoting international security and preserving human life.

Please accept, Your Highness, the assurances of my highest consideration.

A handwritten signature in black ink that reads "Ki Moon Ban".

BAN Ki-moon

His Highness
Sheikh Khalifa Bin Zayed Al Nahyan
President of the United Arab Emirates
Abu Dhabi

THE SECRETARY-GENERAL

24 June 2016

Excellency,

I refer to the Convention on Cluster Munitions (CCM), which entered into force on 1 August 2010.

The Convention on Cluster Munitions prohibits the use, development, production, stockpiling, retaining and transfer of cluster munitions, establishes deadlines for the destruction of stockpiled cluster munitions and clearance of unexploded sub-munitions and contains robust provisions on assistance to cluster munition survivors.

I welcome the fact that 100 States have become parties to the Convention since its adoption in 2008. I support all efforts aimed at achieving universal adherence to and full implementation of the provisions of the Convention. A widely supported and strictly implemented Convention would benefit the victims of cluster munitions and affected communities, save lives and prevent enormous human suffering.

I would therefore like to encourage your country to consider, without delay, becoming a party to the Convention on Cluster Munitions. By joining the Convention, your country would contribute significantly to the strengthening of international humanitarian law in the interests of promoting international security and preserving human life.

Please accept, Excellency, the assurances of my highest consideration.

A handwritten signature in black ink that reads "Ban Ki-moon". The signature is fluid and cursive, with a long horizontal stroke at the end.

BAN Ki-moon

His Excellency
Mr. John Pombe Joseph Magufuli
President of the United Republic of Tanzania
Dar-es-Salaam

THE SECRETARY-GENERAL

24 June 2016

Excellency,

I refer to the Convention on Cluster Munitions (CCM), which entered into force on 1 August 2010.

The Convention on Cluster Munitions prohibits the use, development, production, stockpiling, retaining and transfer of cluster munitions, establishes deadlines for the destruction of stockpiled cluster munitions and clearance of unexploded sub-munitions and contains robust provisions on assistance to cluster munition survivors.

I welcome the fact that 100 States have become parties to the Convention since its adoption in 2008. I support all efforts aimed at achieving universal adherence to and full implementation of the provisions of the Convention. A widely supported and strictly implemented Convention would benefit the victims of cluster munitions and affected communities, save lives and prevent enormous human suffering.

I would therefore like to encourage your country to consider, without delay, becoming a party to the Convention on Cluster Munitions. By joining the Convention, your country would contribute significantly to the strengthening of international humanitarian law in the interests of promoting international security and preserving human life.

Please accept, Excellency, the assurances of my highest consideration.

A handwritten signature in black ink that reads "Ban Ki-moon". The signature is fluid and cursive, with the first letters of each name being capitalized and prominent.

BAN Ki-moon

His Excellency
Mr. Barack Obama
President of the United States of America
Washington, D.C.

THE SECRETARY-GENERAL

24 June 2016

Excellency,

I refer to the Convention on Cluster Munitions (CCM), which entered into force on 1 August 2010.

The Convention on Cluster Munitions prohibits the use, development, production, stockpiling, retaining and transfer of cluster munitions, establishes deadlines for the destruction of stockpiled cluster munitions and clearance of unexploded sub-munitions and contains robust provisions on assistance to cluster munition survivors.

I welcome the fact that 100 States have become parties to the Convention since its adoption in 2008. I support all efforts aimed at achieving universal adherence to and full implementation of the provisions of the Convention. A widely supported and strictly implemented Convention would benefit the victims of cluster munitions and affected communities, save lives and prevent enormous human suffering.

I would therefore like to encourage your country to consider, without delay, becoming a party to the Convention on Cluster Munitions. By joining the Convention, your country would contribute significantly to the strengthening of international humanitarian law in the interests of promoting international security and preserving human life.

Please accept, Excellency, the assurances of my highest consideration.

A handwritten signature in black ink that reads "Ban Ki-moon". The signature is fluid and cursive, with the first letters of each name being capitalized and prominent.

BAN Ki-moon

His Excellency
Mr. Islam A. Karimov
President of the Republic of Uzbekistan
Tashkent

THE SECRETARY-GENERAL

24 June 2016

Excellency,

I refer to the Convention on Cluster Munitions (CCM), which entered into force on 1 August 2010.

The Convention on Cluster Munitions prohibits the use, development, production, stockpiling, retaining and transfer of cluster munitions, establishes deadlines for the destruction of stockpiled cluster munitions and clearance of unexploded sub-munitions and contains robust provisions on assistance to cluster munition survivors.

I welcome the fact that 100 States have become parties to the Convention since its adoption in 2008. I support all efforts aimed at achieving universal adherence to and full implementation of the provisions of the Convention. A widely supported and strictly implemented Convention would benefit the victims of cluster munitions and affected communities, save lives and prevent enormous human suffering.

I would therefore like to encourage your country to consider, without delay, becoming a party to the Convention on Cluster Munitions. By joining the Convention, your country would contribute significantly to the strengthening of international humanitarian law in the interests of promoting international security and preserving human life.

Please accept, Excellency, the assurances of my highest consideration.

A handwritten signature in black ink that reads "Ban Ki-moon". The signature is fluid and cursive, with a long vertical line extending downwards from the end of the name.

BAN Ki-moon

His Excellency
Mr. Baldwin Lonsdale
President of the Republic of Vanuatu
Port Vila

THE SECRETARY-GENERAL

24 June 2016

Excellency,

I refer to the Convention on Cluster Munitions (CCM), which entered into force on 1 August 2010.

The Convention on Cluster Munitions prohibits the use, development, production, stockpiling, retaining and transfer of cluster munitions, establishes deadlines for the destruction of stockpiled cluster munitions and clearance of unexploded sub-munitions and contains robust provisions on assistance to cluster munition survivors.

I welcome the fact that 100 States have become parties to the Convention since its adoption in 2008. I support all efforts aimed at achieving universal adherence to and full implementation of the provisions of the Convention. A widely supported and strictly implemented Convention would benefit the victims of cluster munitions and affected communities, save lives and prevent enormous human suffering.

I would therefore like to encourage your country to consider, without delay, becoming a party to the Convention on Cluster Munitions. By joining the Convention, your country would contribute significantly to the strengthening of international humanitarian law in the interests of promoting international security and preserving human life.

Please accept, Excellency, the assurances of my highest consideration.

A handwritten signature in black ink that reads "Ki Moon Ban".

BAN Ki-moon

His Excellency
Mr. Tran Dai Quang
President of the Socialist Republic of Viet Nam
Hanoi

THE SECRETARY-GENERAL

24 June 2016

Excellency,

I refer to the Convention on Cluster Munitions (CCM), which entered into force on 1 August 2010.

The Convention on Cluster Munitions prohibits the use, development, production, stockpiling, retaining and transfer of cluster munitions, establishes deadlines for the destruction of stockpiled cluster munitions and clearance of unexploded sub-munitions and contains robust provisions on assistance to cluster munition survivors.

I welcome the fact that 100 States have become parties to the Convention since its adoption in 2008. I support all efforts aimed at achieving universal adherence to and full implementation of the provisions of the Convention. A widely supported and strictly implemented Convention would benefit the victims of cluster munitions and affected communities, save lives and prevent enormous human suffering.

I would therefore like to encourage your country to consider, without delay, becoming a party to the Convention on Cluster Munitions. By joining the Convention, your country would contribute significantly to the strengthening of international humanitarian law in the interests of promoting international security and preserving human life.

Please accept, Excellency, the assurances of my highest consideration.

A handwritten signature in black ink that reads "Ban Ki-moon". The signature is fluid and cursive, with the first letters of each name being capitalized and prominent.

BAN Ki-moon

His Excellency
Mr. Abdrabuh Mansour Hadi Mansour
President of the Republic of Yemen
Sana'a

THE SECRETARY-GENERAL

24 June 2016

Excellency,

I refer to the Convention on Cluster Munitions (CCM), which entered into force on 1 August 2010.

The Convention on Cluster Munitions prohibits the use, development, production, stockpiling, retaining and transfer of cluster munitions, establishes deadlines for the destruction of stockpiled cluster munitions and clearance of unexploded sub-munitions and contains robust provisions on assistance to cluster munition survivors.

I welcome the fact that 100 States have become parties to the Convention since its adoption in 2008. I support all efforts aimed at achieving universal adherence to and full implementation of the provisions of the Convention. A widely supported and strictly implemented Convention would benefit the victims of cluster munitions and affected communities, save lives and prevent enormous human suffering.

I would therefore like to encourage your country to consider, without delay, becoming a party to the Convention on Cluster Munitions. By joining the Convention, your country would contribute significantly to the strengthening of international humanitarian law in the interests of promoting international security and preserving human life.

Please accept, Excellency, the assurances of my highest consideration.

A handwritten signature in black ink that reads "Ban Ki-moon". The signature is fluid and cursive, with a long horizontal stroke at the end.

BAN Ki-moon

His Excellency
Mr. Robert G. Mugabe
President of the Republic of Zimbabwe
Harare

THE SECRETARY-GENERAL

24 June 2016

Excellency,

I refer to the Convention on Cluster Munitions (CCM), which entered into force on 1 August 2010.

The Convention on Cluster Munitions prohibits the use, development, production, stockpiling, retaining and transfer of cluster munitions, establishes deadlines for the destruction of stockpiled cluster munitions and clearance of unexploded sub-munitions and contains robust provisions on assistance to cluster munition survivors.

I welcome the fact that 100 States have become parties to the Convention since its adoption in 2008. I support all efforts aimed at achieving universal adherence to and full implementation of the provisions of the Convention. A widely supported and strictly implemented Convention would benefit the victims of cluster munitions and affected communities, save lives and prevent enormous human suffering.

I would therefore like to encourage your country to consider, without delay, becoming a party to the Convention on Cluster Munitions. By joining the Convention, your country would contribute significantly to the strengthening of international humanitarian law in the interests of promoting international security and preserving human life.

Please accept, Excellency, the assurances of my highest consideration.

A handwritten signature in black ink, reading "Ban Ki-moon". The signature is fluid and cursive, with a long horizontal stroke at the end.

BAN Ki-moon

His Excellency
Honorable Toke Tufukia Talagi
Premier of Niue
Alofi